A Collection in English, of the Statutes now in force, continued from the beginning of MAGNA CHARTA, made in the 9. yeare of the Reigne of King H. 3. vntill the end of the Parliament holden in the 7. yeare of the Reigne of our Soueraigne Lord King IAMES, vnder Titles placed by order of Alphabet: Wherein is performed (touching the Statutes wherewith Iuſtices of the Peace haue to deale) ſo much as was promiſed in the Booke of their Office lately publiſhed. For which purpoſe alſo the Statutes concerning thoſe Iuſtices haue this marke ☞ at the beginning, and this marke ✻ at the end of them, noted in the margent ouer-againſt the ſame.

Hereunto are added two Tables:

The one at the beginning of the Booke, declaring vnder Titles, by order of Alphabet, the ſubſtance of ſuch referments as ſtood at the end of each Title in the firſt Collection of Statutes, ſet forth by M. Iuſtice Raſtall. And in this Table the Title of Iuſtices of the Peace is ſpecially peruſed and amended, for their more eaſie finding of matters in this Booke, concerning their authoritie.

In the other Table (being at the end of this Booke) are ſet downe by order of the Kings reignes, the ſeuerall times of their Parliaments, together with the ſundry Chapters and intitulings of the particular Statutes in euery of the ſame: whereby the Reader may eaſily find vnder what Title, and in what leafe of this Booke any of thoſe Statutes be placed: and may alſo (by helpe of certaine hands prefixed to diuers of them) readily ſee, what, and how many Statutes, in each Kings Reigne, doe concerne the Iuſtices of Peace, and in what leafe of this Booke to find them.

LONDON,
Printed for the Societie of Stationers,
An. Dom. 1611.
Cum Priuilegio.

William Raftall, Sergeant at Law, to the gentle Reader.

HEre haue yee (Gentle Readers) a Collection of the Statutes of England, (from the beginning of Magna Charta vnto this preſent time, which were before this yeere imprinted, and which be now in force and effect.

The printed Statutes, expired, or repealed, or concerning priuat perſons, or ſome priuat places, I haue (for the moſt part) left out of this Worke: ſauing that of them I haue made in their apt titles (as I thinke) a briefe remembrance.

The reſidue of the Statutes imprinted haue I put in this Worke (as I ſuppoſe) in their apt titles, word for word, as they be in the great Statutes: onely leauing out, as well certaine ſuperfluous words, as alſo the moſt part of the preambles, for that I feared, that if I ſhould haue put in all the preambles, this booke would haue growne ſo big, and ſo thicke, that it would not haue been contained in this volume. Neuertheleſſe, I haue (I truſt) put in thoſe preambles, without which the bodie of the Statutes cannot be well perceiued.

But yet truſt not, that all the Statutes that I haue put at large in this Booke do ſtand in force: For percaſe ſome of them be repealed by other Statutes made after, by ſpeciall or generall words, which for lack of leaſure I could not throughly conſider. I haue noted in the Margent of euery Statute certaine words, and that for three cauſes:

The firſt, for that, that many of the Statutes be long, and containe many ſeuerall matters, of which percaſe you would many times gladly ſhortly finde out ſome one (without tediouſneſſe, ſpending of the time in reading ouer the whole Statute) therefore by peruſing the words in the Margent ye may quickly conceiue what matters be in that Statute, whereby you may readily find out the matter that ye would read of in that Statute.

The ſecond cauſe is, that the words in the Margent well conſidered ſhall ſtand you in as good ſtead as ſhould a ſpeciall Calender.

The third cauſe is, becauſe that many Statutes containe diuers matters, that neceſſarily were to be put in diuers ſeuerall titles apt for thoſe ſeuerall matters, and ſo ſhould diuers matters aptly be put in this booke twice or thrice, or percaſe in moe places in their diuers apt titles, were it not that then this booke would haue beene too bigge; therefore the words in the Margent doe ſhortly ſhew you thoſe ſeuerall matters apt for other titles.

To the Reader.

Note, that the words within the Parentheſes ( ) be not the words of the Statute, but my words planted in there, for the better vnderſtanding of the Statute.

And although I haue put the Statutes here at large, yet will I aduiſe euery ſuch of you, as ſhall haue any matter of importance concerning any Statute in this booke not to truſt altogether to this booke: But read you ouer diligently the Act, with the Preamble thereof, in the great bookes of Statutes, out of which I tooke this. This aduiſe I giue you for two cauſes: The one, for that, that reading the Preamble with the Statute, it ſhall many times giue you much light for the true vnderſtanding of the Statute: where if yee read the Statute in this booke without the Preamble, the vnderſtanding of the Statute may be to you oft time confuſed: The other cauſe is, for that, that perhaps diuers faults be eſcaped in this Worke, ſome for lacke of diligence of the Printer, and ſome by my default, for lacke of leaſure to conſider, and aduiſedly to peruſe and ouerſee this Worke after I had finiſhed it.

Note alſo, that in the end of euery Referment of the two Tables you ſhall find the one of theſe foure letters, A.B.C.D. which do ſignifie the firſt, ſecond, third, and fourth Columne of euery leafe.

Vale.

Borne ouer Sea.

2 Becauſe that ſome people be in doubt whether the children borne in the parts beyond the Sea out of the ligeance of England, ſhould be able to demaund any inheritance within the ſame ligeance or not, whereof a petition was put into the Parliament late holden at Weſtminſter, the yeare of the reigne of our ſoueraigne Lord the king that now is, and was not at the ſame time wholy aſſented vnto: Our Soueraigne Lord the King, willing that all doubts and ambiguities ſhould bee taken away, and to declare, and put the law in certaine in this caſe, hath charged the Prelats, Earls, Barons, and other wiſe men of his Counſell aſſembled in this Parliamēt, to deliberat vpon this point: who of one aſſent haue ſaid, that the law of the Crowne of England is, and alwaies hath been ſuch, that the children of the Kings of England (in whatſoeuer parts they ſhalbe borne in England or els where) be able and ought to carrie the inheritance after the death of their anceſtors: which law our ſaid Soueraigne Lord the King, the ſaid Prelats, Earls, Barons, & other great men, and all the Commons aſſembled in this Parliament, do approue and affirme for euer. And as concerning other children borne out of the ligeance of England, in the time of our ſoueraigne Lord the king, they be alſo of one mind accorded, that Henry ſon of John Beaumond, Elizabeth daughter of Guy de Brian, and Giles ſonne of Rauſe Dawbeney, and others which the king will name, which were borne beyond the ſea, out of the ligeance of England, ſhall be from henceforth able to haue and inioye their inheritance after the death of their anceſtors, in all parts within the ſame ligeance of England, as well as thoſe that be borne within the ſame liegeance of England. And that all children inheritable, which from henceforth ſhalbe borne out of the ligeance of the king, whoſe fathers and mothers at the time of their birth be and ſhall bee of the faith, and of the ligeance of the king of England, ſhall haue and inioy the ſame benefits and aduantages, to haue and beare inheritance within the ſame ligeance, as the other inheritors aforeſaid, in time to come: ſo alwaies that the mothers of ſuch children do paſſe the Sea by the licence and wils of their huſbands. And if it be alleaged againſt any ſuch borne beyond the ſea, that he is a baſtard, in caſe where the biſhop ought to haue conſiſance of baſtardie, it ſhall ſhall bee ſent to the biſhop of the place where the land demaunded is, to certifie the kings Court where the plee thereof hangeth, as of old times hath bin vſed in the caſe of Baſtardie, alleadged againſt them which were borne in England, 25. Approuements.

BEcause many great men of England (which haue infeoffed knights and their freeholders of small tenements in their great manors) haue complained that they cannot make their profit of the residue of their manors, as of their walks, woods, and pastures, whereas neuertheless the same feoffees may haue sufficient pasture there asmuch as appertaineth to their hold. Thus it is prouided & graunted, that whensoeuer such feoffees do bring an assise of Nouel disseisin for their common of pasture: and it is recognised before the Iusticers, that they haue asmuch pasture as sufficeth for their hold, and that they haue free egresse & regresse from their hold vnto the pasture, then let them be contented therewith, and they on whom they haue complained shall goe quite, for that they haue made their profite of their lands, walk, woodes, and pastures. And if they alleage that they haue not sufficient pasture, or not sufficient egresse and regresse as appertaineth to their hold, then let the trueth be inquired by Assise. And if it be found by assise, that the same forceors haue disturbed them of their egresse or regresse in any thing, or that they haue not sufficient pasture (as is aforesaid) then shall they recouer their seisin by the view of the Enquest, so that by their discretion and othe, the plaintifes shall haue sufficient pasture, and sufficient egresse and regresse, in forme aforesaid. And the disseisors shal be amerced, and shall yelde damages as they were wont before this prouision. And if it be found by the assise, that the plaintifes haue sufficient pasture with free and sufficient egresse and regresse, as before is said, let the other make their commodity of the residue, and go quite of the Assise. 2 As in a statute made at Merton (before 1.) it was graunted, that Lords of walk, woods, and pastures might improue the said walk, woods, and pastures, notwithstanding the contradiction of the tenants, so that the tenants had sufficient pasture to their holde, with free egresse and regresse to the same. And forasmuch as no mention was made betweene neighbor and neighbor, many lords of walk, woods, and pastures, haue ben let heretofore by the contradiction of the neighbours hauing sufficient pasture. And forbecause forreine tenants haue no more right to common in the walk, woods, or pastures of any Lord, then the Lords owne tenants: It is ordained, that the statute of Merton, prouided betweene the lord and his tenant, from henceforth shall hold place betweene Lords of walk, woods, and pastures, and neighbors: sauing sufficient pasture to their tenants and neighbors, so that the lords of such walk, woods, & pastures, may make improuements of the residue. And this shalbe obserued for such as claime pasture as pertaining to their hold: But if any doe claime common of pasture by speciall feoffement or graunt, for a certaine number of beasts, or otherwise then he ought haue of common right, seeing that couenants may abridge the laive, hee shall haue such recouerie as he ought to haue by forme of the graunt made vnto him, by occasion of a Windmill, berkarie, dairie, intarging of a necessary court or courtilage, from henceforth no man shal be grieued by Assise of Nouel disseisin of common of pasture. And where sometimes it chanceth, that one hauing right to improue, doth leuy a ditch or an hedge, and some by night, or at an other season when they hope not to be espied, doe ouerthrow the hedge or ditch, and it can not be knowen by verdict of the Assise or Iurie, who did ouerthrow the hedge or ditch, and men of the townes neere, will not indict such as be guilty of the fact, the Townes neere adioyning shall be distrained to raise vp the hedge or ditch again at their owne cost, and to yeld damages. Chancerie Plaintife Nouel diss. Justice Delaies

6 For asmuch as there is no writ in the Chancerie, whereby plaintifes can haue so speedie remedie as by a writ of Nouel disseisin: Our soueraign Lord the king to the intent that Justice may be more speedily ministred, & delaies in plees may be abridged and taken away, graunteth that a writ of Nouel disseisin shall hold plate in moe cases then it hath done heretofore. And graneteth that for Essouers of wood, & profit to be taken in woods by gathering of Nuts, Acornes, and other fruites, for a Corodie, and deliuerie of corne and other victuals and necessaries, and money to be receiued yerely in a place certaine, for toll, tronage, passage, pontage, pawnage, and such like to be taken in places certaine, for keeping of woods, parks, forests, chases, warrens, yates, and other Bailiwikes, and offices in fee, from henceforth an assise of Nouel disseisin shall lie, and in all cases afore rehearsed, the writ shall be as it was wont to be, De libero tenemento. And as before times it hath lyen and holden place for common of pasture, so shall it from henceforth hold place for common of turueland, fishing, and such like commons, which any man hath appendant to his freehold, or without free hold by speciall deed, at the least for terme of life. In case also when any holding for terme of yeares, or in ward, alieneth the same in fee, and by such alienation the freehold is transferred to the feoffee, the remedie shal be by a writ of Nouel disseisin, and aswell the feoffor as the feoffee shall be held for disseisors, so that during the life of any of them, the saide writ shall hold place. And if by the death of the parties remedie happen to faile by that writ, then remedy shall be had by a writ of Entre. And albeit that aboue mention is made of some cases wherin a writ of Nouel disseisin held no place before, let no man thinke therfore that this writ lyeth not now where it hath lyen before. And though some haue doubted whether remedie may be had by this writ, in case where one feedeth the seuerall ground of another, let it be held for certaine, that a good and a sure remedy is giuen in that case by the said writ. And let them that be named disseisors, beware from henceforth, that they alleage no false exceptions, whereby the taking of the Assise may be deferred, saying that another time an Assise of the same land passed betweene the same parties, or saying vntruly that a writ of more high nature hangeth betweene the same parties for the same land, and vpon these and like matters doe vouch Rolles or Records to warrantie, to the end that by the same vouching they may take away the vesture of the land, and receiue the rents and profittes, to the great damage of the plaintife. And whereas before, none other paine was to be had against him that falsely had alleaged such vntrue exceptions, but onely that after such false surmises disproued the Assises should bee taken: Our Soueraigne Lord the king (to whome such false exceptions be odious) hath ordained, that if any being named disseisor do personally alleage that exception, if at the day to him giuen he faile of the warrant that he hath vouched, he shall be adiudged for a disseisor without taking of the Assise, and shall restore the damages before enquired of, or to be enquired of after, to the double, and shall nuertheless haue a yeares imprisonment for his falshood. And if the exception bee alleadged by a Bailife, the taking of the Assise shall not be delayed therefore, nor the iudgement vpon the restitution of the landes and damages. Prouided neuertheless, that if the Maister of such a Bailife that was absent, come afterward before the same Iusticers that took the assise, and offer to prone by the Record or Roll, that at another time an Assise passed betweene the same parties for the same land, or that the plaintife at an other time, did withdraw his suite in a like writ, or that there is a plee hanging by a writ of more high nature: a writ shall bee made for him for the same Record: & when he shall haue the same, & the Iusticers doe perceiue that the Record so sent, would haue bin so auaileable to him before iudgement, that the plaintife by force of the same should haue beene barred of his action, the Iusticers shall award immediately a Sci. fac. against him that first recouered, ỹ he appeare before them at a certain day, at the which day the defendant shall recouer againe his seisin and his damages (if he haue payed any by the first iudgement) with the damages also that he hath sustained after the first iudgement giuen, which hee shall recouer to the double, as before is saide, and he that first recouered shall be punished by imprisonment after the discretion of the Iustices. In the same manner if the defendant against whome the assise passed in his absence, shew any deeds or releases, vpon the making whereof the Iurie were not examined, nor could bee examined, because there was no mention made of them in pleading, and probably they might be ignorant of the making of those writings: The Iustices vpon the sight of those writings, shall award a Scire facias to the partie that recouered, that he appeare before them at a certaine day, and shall cause the Iurors of the same Assises to come before them. And if he proue those writings true by their verdict, or by the inrolment of them, he that purchased that assise contrarie to his owne deed, shall be punished by the paine aforesaid. Neither shall the Sherife from henceforth take an ore of the disseisee, but of the disseisor onely, and if there be many disseisors named in one writ, yet shall he be contented with one Ore, or shall aske any Ore but of 5. shillings price, or the value. And they shall by our writ vnder their Teste let the partie absent, whome the déede testifieth to haue beene iointly enfeoffed with the tenant that is present, to vnderstand, that he be present at a certaine day with the other tenant, for to answer vnto the partie plaintife, aswell vpon the exception alleadged, as of the lands demanded and put in view, if it shall so séeme expedient to him: At which day if both they that are named tenants doe come in, and doe iustifie the same feoffement, they shall answere and maintaine the exception alleadged by one of them, and further shall answere vnto the assise, as though the originall had beene purchased against both of them iointly. And if it be proued by Assise, that the exception was alleadged malitiously for to delay the plaintife of his right, so that they held not the same land iointly the day of the writ purchased, then albeit the same assise do passe for the tenants, and against the plaintife, yet they that alleage the exception shall be punished by one yeares imprisonment, from whence they shall not be deliuered without a grieuous ransome. And let Iustices be wel aduised, that from henceforth they doe not allow such an exception alleaged by the bailifes of any such tenants. And if hee that alleageth the exception absent himselfe at his day, and the other that is named iointenant doe appeare, although he disauow the same deede, and say, that he hath nothing in the foresaide lands &c. neuertheles the assise shall be awarded against him that is absent by the default. And if it be found by the assise that they were not iointly seised, the day of the writ purchased, and likewise that the tenant against whom the writ was purchased, or any other named in the writ did disseise the plaintif, then hauing regard to the exception that was falsely and malitiously alleaged to the hurt of the partie, and to the disseisin that was made, the plaintife shal recouer his seisin and double damages, and they that alleaged the false exception, shall haue the punishment aforesaid: But if neither of the tenants doe come in at the day, then vpon their default the assise shall be awarded against them. And if it bée found that the same exception was lawfully and truely alleaged, and that they that alleaged it, were iointly seised before the plaintif purchased his writ against them, the assise shall passe no further, but the writ shall be abated. The same shall be obserued if both or one doe appeare, if it be found by assise that the exception was truely alleaged, as before is saide. The same order shall be obserued in assises of Mortdancester, and writs of Iuris vtrum if on the first day that the parties appeare in court the tenant alleage the saide exception against the demaundant, shewing a deed thereupon, and the demandant will offer to auerre by the assise or Iurie, that the day of his writ purchased, hee that alleaged the exception was sole tenant, then the same manner of proces shall be vsed in the assises of Mortdancester, and writs of Iuris vtrum as before is ordained in the assises of Nouel disseisin, and like punishment shall be awarded vpon the offendors. But in other writs whereby landes are demanded, such proces shall be made at the first day that the parties appeare in court, if the tenant doe alleage the foresaide exception of a ioint feoffement, and the demaundant will offer to auerre by the Countrey, that the day of the writte purchased he that alleaged the exception was sole tenant, then the same maner of proces shall be obserued betwixt the parties, vntill a Iurie haue passed betweene them thereupon. And if it be foūden by the Iurie that the same exception was truely alleaged, then the writ of the demaundant shall abate. And if it be founden by the Iurie that the same exception was falsely & malitiously alleaged, to the hinderance of the party, then the demandant shal recouer his seisin of the lands in demand, & the tenant shal be punished by the pain abouesaid in a writ of Nouel disseisin, as to the imprisonment, & as to the damages according to the discretion of the Iustices. 10 Our Soueraigne Lord the King, by the grieuous complaint of his Commons, considering the great mischiefes had within the Realme, and yet not remedied, and also the great damage and disinheritance that commeth by the vsuall periurie of Jurors, impanelled in Enquests, aswell

in the Courts of our Soueraigne Lord the King, as of other, the which periury aboundeth and increaseth daily more then it was wont, by reason of the great gifts that such Iurors take of the parties to the pleas sued in the said Courts, insomuch that the greater part of the people that haue to sue in the said Courts, leaue their suits for the mischiefe aforesaid, especially for cause of the delayes that be in the writs of Attaint, for that in times past in writs of Attaint when the grand Iurie had appeared in Court, and were ready to passe, one of the tenants or defendants, or of the petty Iurors named in such Writs, sometime haue pleaded false & faint pleas, which were not triable by the graund Iury of the attaint, and by that cause delayed the taking of such graund Iuries, till such pleas were tried: And afore such pleas tried and found for the plaintife, another of the Iurors, tenants or defendants, might pleade another such false & faint plea, after the last continuance in the same attaints, and so euery of the defendants, Iurors or tenants after other might pleade such false and faint plea, and delay the grand Iury when it was ready to passe. And though that all such false and faint pleas were found against them which pleaded them, no paine was giuen to them by the common Law: for cause of which delayes the graund Iuries in Attaints haue bene greeuously vexed and trauailed, and the plaintifes in such attaints put to so great costs, & therby impouerished, that they could not sue forth their said suits, wherefore the Iurors be the more incouraged to be periured & make their false oaths in such cases. Our said soueraigne Lord the King, willing vpon that to prouide remedy, at the request of the said Commons, and by the assent of the Lords aboue said, hath ordained and stablished, that the parties plaintifes in all such attaints, shall recouer their damages and costs against all such tenants, Iurors, and defendants, which they shall sustaine in that behalfe. Aduowsons.

VVHeras for Aduowsons of churches, there be but three originall writs, that is to say, one writ for the Right, and two for the possession, which be the Darrein presentment, and the Quare impedit, and hitherto it hath beene vsed in the Realm, that when any hauing no right to present, had presented to any church, whose Clerke was admitted, he that was the verie patron could not recouer his aduowson, but onely by a writ of Right, which should be tried by battaile, or by the great assise, whereby heires within age, either by fraud, or else by the negligence of their wardeins, & heires both of ful age & within age, either by negligence or else by fraud of tenãts by the curtesie, tenãts in dower, or otherwise, for term of life, or for yeres, or in fee taile, were many times disherited of their Aduowsons, or at the least (which was their best helpe) were driuen to their writ of Right, and in case were hitherto altogether disherited: It is prouided, that such presentments shall not be so preiudiciall to the right heires, or to them vnto whome such Aduowsons ought to reuert after the death of such persons, as is aforesaid: But that as often as any hauing no right doth present during the time that such heires are in ward, or during the estates of tenants in dower, by the curtesie, or otherwise, for terme of life, or of yeares, or in taile, at the next auoidance after that the heire shall bee come to full age, or that after the death of the tenants before named, the aduowson shal reuert vnto the heire being of full age, he shal haue the same action and exception by a pollesorie writ of Aduowson, which the last ancestour of that heire being of full age should haue had at the last auoidance happening in his time before his death, or before the demise was made for terme of life, or in fee taile, as before is saide. The same shall be obserued in presentmẽts made vnto churches being of the inheritance of women, what time they shall bee vnder the power of their husbands, who shall be aided by this statute, by the remedie aforesaid. Also Religious men, Archbyshops, Bishops, Archdeacons, Parsons of churches, and other ecclesiasticall men, shal be aided by this statut, in case any hauing no right to present vnto the Churches belonging to their houses, prelacies, dignities, or parsonages, what time such houses, prelacies, spiritual dignities, or personages be vacant. Yet shal not this act be so largely vnderstanden, that such persons for whose remedie this statute is ordained, shall haue the recouerie aforesaid, saying that the Gardiens of the heirs, the tenants by the curtelie, tenãts in dower, for terme of life, or for yeres, or the husbãds did faintly defend the plees moued by the, or against them, because the iudgements giuen in the kings courts, shall not be annulled by this statute, but the iudgement shall stand in force, vntill it be reuersed in the estate of the

And from henceforth one forme of pleading ſhal be obſerued amongſt the Iuſticers in writs of Darreine preſentment, and Quare impedit, as to this, that if the defendant alleage plenartie in the church of his owne preſentation, the plee ſhall not ſtay by reaſon of that plenartie, ſo as the writ be purchaſed within ſixe moneths, though hee cannot recouer his preſentation within ſixe moneths. And ſometimes where a fine is leuied betweene many claiming one Aduowſon, and is inrolled before the Iuſticers in the roll or fine, in this forme, that one of them ſhal preſent the firſt time, and at the next auoidance an other, and the third time another, and ſo of more, in caſe there be more: And when one hath had his preſentment, according to the forme of their ſaid agreement and fine, and at the next auoidance, he to whome the ſecond preſentation belongeth, is diſturbed by any that was partie to the ſaid fine, or in his ſtéede: It is prouided, that from henceforth he that is ſo diſturbed, ſhall haue no néed to ſue a Quare impedit, but ſhall reſort to the roll or fine. And if the ſaid concord or agréement be found in the Roll or fine, then the Sherife ſhall be commanded, that he giue knowledge vnto the diſturbor, that hée bee readie at ſome ſhort day, containing the ſpace of fifteene daies or three weékes (as the place happeneth to be néere or farre) for to ſhew if he can alleage any thing wherefore the partie that is diſturbed ought not to preſent: And if hée come not, or peraduenture doth come, and can nothing alleage to barre the partie of his preſentation, by reaſon of any déede made ſince the fine was leuied, or inrolled, hée ſhall recouer his preſentation with his damages. And where it chanceth, that after the death of the anceſtor that preſented his Clerke vnto a Church, the ſame aduowſon is aſſigned in Dower to any woman, or to tenant by the curteſie, which doe preſent, and after the death of ſuch Tenants, the true heire is diſturbed to preſent when the Church is void: It is prouided, that from henceforth it ſhall bee in the election of the partie diſturbed, whether he will ſue by a writ of Quare impedit, or of Darreine preſentment. The ſame ſhall be obſerued in Aduowſons demiſed for terme of life, or yeares, or in fée taile. And from henceforth in writs of Quare impedit, and Darreine preſentment, damages ſhall be awarded, that is to wit, if the time of ſixe Months paſſe by ſuch let, ſo that the biſhop doe preſent, and the true Patron leeſeth his preſentation for that time, damages ſhall be awarded for two yeares value of the Church. And if tho ſixe Monethes be not paſſed, but that the preſentment be recouered within the ſaid time, then damages ſhall be awarded to the halfe yeares value of the Church. And if the diſturbor haue not whereof he can recompence the damages (in caſe where the Biſhop preſenteth by Laps of time) hée ſhall be puniſhed by two yeares impriſonment. And if the Aduowſon be recouered within the halfe yeare, yet the diſturbor ſhall be puniſhed by the impriſonment of halfe a yeare. And from henceforth writs ſhall be graunted for Chappels, Prebendes, Vicarages, Hoſpitals, Abbies, Priories, and other houſes which be of the Aduowſons of other men, that haue not béene vſed to be granted before. And when the parſon of any Church is diſturbed to demaund Tythes in the next parith by a writ of Indicauit, the Patron of the parſon ſo diſturbed, ſhall haue a writ to demand the Aduowſon of the Tythes in demaund, and when that is tried then ſhall the plea paſſe in the Court chriſtian, as it is tried in the kings Court. When an Aduowſon diſcendeth vnto Parcerners, though one preſent twice, and vſurpeth vpon his coheire, yet he that was negligent, ſhall not be clearely barred, but another time ſhall haue his turne to preſent when it falleth. ☞ 3 Whereas in the parliament holden at Weſtminſter in the ſecond and third yeres of the raigne of the late king Philip and Queene Marie one act was made and ordained for the amending & maintaining of High waies, which ſaide act hauing no longer continuance but for ſeauen yeres after the end of the ſame Parliament, was afterwards by one other act of Parliament made in the fifth yere of the Queenes Maieſties raigne that now is, reuiued, to haue further continuance for a certaine time yet induring, in which ſaide act made in the ſaid fifth yeare, and other act made in the viij. yeare of her Maieſties raigne, there were contained diuers further additions and ordinances, tending to the amendment and maintenance of the ſaid high waies. And whereas the ſea bankes and workes in ſundrie parts of the Sea coſtes within the Countie of Norfolk (not being within the particuler charge of any perſon or perſons, or of anie Townelhip, or to be maintained by any other cõmon charge) are by the working of the Sea ruined and decayed, to the great hurt and preiudice of many Townelhips, within three miles of the ſaid bankes and Seaworkes, and likely daily more and more to grow in ruine and decaie, if conuenient remedie be not prouided in that behalfe. And whereas the high waies within three miles of the ſaid ſea bankes and Sea workes be ſo grauely and ſandie, as neither need nor require for the amendment of the ſame, ſo many of the ſaide day workes, as be limitted and appointed by the ſaid ſtatutes, the ſurpluſage of which ſaid day workes if it might bee yearely imployed towards the repairing, amending, and maintaining of ſuch of the ſaid ſea banks and ſea workes, as are not, or ought not to be made and maintained at the particuler charge of any perſon or perſons, or at the charge of any Townelhip, or by acrelhot, or other common charge, would be a ſinguler benefit and helpe to the aforeſaide Townelhips, within three miles of the ſaide Sea bankes and Seaworkes, ſo yerely to be made and maintained. For remedie whereof bee it enacted & ordained by authoritie of this preſent parliament, that from and after the feaſt of Pentecoſt now next inſuing, the Juſtices of Peace within the ſaide Countie of Norfolke, ſhall and may yearely at any generall Seſſions to be holden within the ſaide Countie, for and towards the making and amending of any the ſaide Sea bankes, or Seaworkes, (now being, or that hereafter ſhall be in ruine or decay) limit and appoint ſo many of the aforeſaide day workes, as by their diſcretions ſhall be thought ſuperfluous and not needfull to be imployed towards the amendment of the aforeſaid highwaies, within three miles of the ſaide Sea bankes, or ſea workes, which ſhall needfully require any ſuch reparatiõ or amendment. And be it further enacted, ỹ euerie perſon & perſons, dwelling within three miles of the ſaid ſea banks & ſea workes needfully to be amended, as is aforeſaid, ſhall yearely vpon reaſonable warning giuen, during ſo many daies as ſhall be limited and appointed in the ſaid Seſſions, in reſpect of his and their labour and carriages, ſtand and be in that degree charged and chargeable towards the making, repairing and amending of the ſaid Sea bankes, or Sea workes, as by the aforeſaide ſtatutes they ſtand charged and chargeable for the amendment of any highwaies. And that the ſaid Juſtices likewiſe in their aforeſaid generall ſeſſions, ſhal and may nominate and appoint the high conſtables of euerie hundred that ſhall be charged or chargeable by force of this act, towards the making or amending of the ſaid Sea bankes, or Sea workes, to be Surueyors of the ſaid Sea workes, and Sea bankes. And that they and euerie of them ſhall take vpon them the execution of the ſaid charge & office, & duly perform the ſame, vpon ſuch a like paine and forfeiture, as by the ſaid Statutes or any of them be impoſed vpon anie ſurueior, or ſurueiors, for not taking vpon him or them the office of Surueior for the amendment of the high waies. WHereas diuers and sundrie persons craftily obtaining into their handes great substance of other mens goods, do suddenly flie to parties vnknowne, or keep their houses, not minding to pay or restore to any their creditors, their debt and duties, but at their owne wils and pleasure, consume the substance obtained by credite of other men, for their owne pleasures, and delicate liuing, against all reason, equitie, and good conscience. Be it therefore enacted by authoritie of this present parliament, that the Lord Chauncellour of England, or keeper of the great Seale, the Lord Treasorer, the Lord President, Lord Priuie Seale, and other the kings most honourable priuy Councell, and the chiefe Iustice of either bench for the time being, or three of them at the least, whereof the Lord Chancellor, or keeper of the great seale, Lord Treasorer, Lord President, or the Lord priuie Seale to be one, vpon euerie complaint made to them in writing, by any parties grieued concerning the premisses, shall haue power and authoritie by vertue of this act, to take by their wisdome & discretion such orders and directions, as well with the bodies of such offendors aforesaide, whersoeuer they may be had, as wel in their houses as elsewher, by imprisonment of their bodies, or otherwise, as also with their lands, tenements, fees, annuities, and offices, which they haue in fee simple, fee taile, terme of life, terme of yeares, or in the right of their wiues, as much as the interest, right, & title of the same offendors shall extend or be, & may then lawfully be departed with, by the said offendor, & also with their money, goods, cattels, wares, merchandizes, and debts, wheresoeuer they may be found or knowne. And to cause their saide landes, tenements, fees, annuities, offices, goods, cattels, wares, Merchandizes, and debts, to be searched, viewed, rented, and appraised, and to make sale of the saide lands, tenements, fees, annuities, and offices, asmuch as the same offendor may then lawfully giue, graunt, or depart with, or otherwise to order the same for true satisfaction and paiment of the said creditors a portion, rate and rate like, according to the quantitie of their debts. And that euery direction, order, bagaine, sale, & other things done by the said Lords, authorised, as is aforesaide, in writing signed with their hands, by authoritie of this act, shall be good and effectuall in the law, to all intents, constructions, and purposes, against the said offendors, their heires and executors for euer, as though the same order, direction, bargain, & sale had bin made by ỹ said offendor or offendors, at his, or their owne free will and libertie, by writing indented, inrolled in any the kings courts of record. And be it &c. that if after any such act or offence committed, and complaint thereof made to the said Lords, as is aforesaide, any partie grieued concerning the premisses, knowing, supposing, or suspecting anie of the goods, Cattels, Wares, Merchandizes, or debtes of such offendor or offendors to bee in custodie, vse, occupying, keeping, or possession of anie person or persons, or any person or persons to be indebted to any such offendor or offendors, do make relation thereof to the said Lords, to whome authoritie is giuen by this present act, as is aforesaid, that then the said Lords shal by vertue hereof haue ful power and authoritie to send for, and conuent afore them, by such proces, waies, or meanes, as they shall think conuenient by their discretiõs, all & euerie such person & persons, so knowen, supposed, or suspected to haue any such goods, cattels, wares, merchãdizes, or debts, in his or their custody, vse, occupation, keeping or possession, or supposed, or suspected to be indebted to such offendor or offendors, & vpon their apparance to examin them & euerie of them aswel by their othes, as otherwise, by such waies & meanes, as the said Lords by their discretions shal think mete & conuenient, for & vpon the specialty, certainty, true declaratiõ & knowledge of all and singuler such goods, cattels, wares, merchandizes, and debts of any such offendors as be supposed or suspected to be in his or their custodie, vse, occupation, or possession, & of all such debts as by them, or any of them shall be supposed or suspected to be owing to any such offendor. And if any such person or persons vpon such examination do not disclose, plainely declare, & shew the whole truth of such things as he or they shal be examined of, concerning ỹ premisses, then euery such person or persons so examined, and not declaring the plain & whole truth concerning the premisses, vpon due proofe thereof to be made before the saide Lordes therefore authorised, as is aforesaid, by witnes, examination or otherwise, as to the same Lords shall seeme sufficient in that behalfe, shall lase & forfeit double the value of all such goods, cattels, wares, merchandizes, and debts by them or any of them so concealed, and not wholy and plainely declared and shewed: which forfaiture shall bee leuied and recouered by the said lords, hauing authority as is aforesaid, by such waies and means as to them shal seeme requisite and conuenient. And the same forfeiture to be distributed and imployed to and for the satisfaction and paiment of the debts of the said creditor or creditors in such like maner, rate, and forme as is afore declared concerning the order of the goods and cattels of the saide offendors, keeping their houses, or flying to places vnknowne as is aforesaid. 6 Whereas by the former part of the Statute made in the 18. yeare of the Quenes Maiesties raigne, and by the Prouiso in the end of the same Statute, the intent and meaning is, That the contribution money of the lands and tenements contributorie to the repaire and maintenance of Rochester Bridge in the Countie of Kent, ought from time to time to be tared by the two Wardens and twelue Assistants of the said Bridge, or by the more part of them (when need of such contributiō should require) for supplie of those reparations of the said Bridge, which the reuenewes of the lands proper and belonging to the said Bridge will not suffice to doe. And whereas the said two Wardens and twelue Assistants, be euerie yeare elected of the owners of lands contributorie as aforesaid, and the accounts of all receipts and paiments are by the two Wardens euerie yeare duely made, and the money duely imployed as is limited by the said late Statute, yet for want of expresse words, limiting that the said Wardens and Assistants should tare the said contributorie lands in such case of want, as aforesaid, the same Wardens & Assistants hitherto haue beene doubtfull, and haue forborne to make such tare, and thereby haue beene forced vpon their owne credits and friendships to procure the want aforesaid, to be supplied by some beneuolent loanes and gifts of sundrie persons, a matter verie difficult, and not to be trusted vpō for perpetuall maintenance of the said bridge: Be it therefore declared, explained, ordained and enacted by authority of this present Parliament, that from time to time hereafter, as often as the rents or other profits of the lands proper and belonging to the said bridge, shall not be sufficient to beare the charge of reparations of the said bridge, the said two Wardens & twelue Assistants for the time being, being elected (of the owners of lands contributorie) or the said two Wardens together, with the more part of the said Assistants, shall and lawfully may tare all the said contributorie lands and tenements, rating euerie parish where those lands doe lye, reasonably and proportionably at such summe of money, and to be paied in such manner and forme, as by the said two Wardens and twelue Assistants, or the said Wardens with the most part of the twelue Assistants, as aforesaid, (assembled at the accustomed place of election) shall be limited and appointed in writing vnder their hands and Seales: for due leuie and satisfaction whereof, it shall be lawfull to any person by the said two Wardens and Assistants, or two Wardens with the most part of the twelue Assistants, as aforesaid (vnder their hands & seales in writing authorized) to leuie the same money tared, to take and seise the goods and cattels of any of the inhabitants or owners of contributorie lands, in the parish where any part of the said money so tared shall be vnpaied, and to leuie the same money by sale of the said goods and chattels, and if the goods and chattels so taken, seised and sold, shall amount to more value then the said taration shall come vnto, that then the residue of the said money, ouer and aboue the said taration, shall be deliuered vnto the person or persons, whose goods or chattels shall bee so sold. And for a conuenient assemblie to make a due election of such Wardens and Assistants yerely, as will be carefull for maintenance of the said bridge, It is further ordained and enacted by authoritie aforesaid, That euerie yeare at the said election of the said two Wardens and twelue Assistants (by the said former statute limited) two at the least of housholders inhabitants of euerie parish, in which there are foure housholders at the least within seuen miles of the said bridge, and wherein any of the said contributorie lands doe lye, shall be present to giue their voices at the same election, vpon paine of ten shillings to be forfeited by the inhabitants of euerie such parish, making default of such apparance, the same penalties to be leuied in forme as afore is limited, for leuying of the contribution money tared, as aforesaid, and to be imployed vpon the reparations of the said bridge. And the expences of the said Wardens, Assistants, or inhabitants at the said election day, to be paied or borne at their owne charges, euerie man to beare his owne charge. Anno 27. Eliz. cap. 25.

4 Forasmuch as many souldiers which haue taken parcell of their wages of their captaines, and so haue mustered and bin entred of record the Kings souldiers, before his Commissioners, for certaine termes agréed vpon by their masters, haue sometimes straightwaies after departed, and not passed the sea with their captaines, and some of them haue passed sea, and after, long within their termes, departed from their captaines, without apparant licence, to the great perill and preiudice of the Realme: Be it enacted, that euerie man so mustering and receiuing the Kings wages, which departeth from his captaine within his termes in any manner aforesaid, except that notorious sicknesse or impediment by the visitation of God (which may reasonably be knowne) suffer him not to goe, and which he shall certifie immediatly to his captaine, and shall repay his money, so that he may prouide him for another souldier in his place, hee shall be punished as a Felon. 5 Ann 7. H. 7. cap. 1. & Ann 3. H. 8. cap. 5. two seuerall statutes almost word for word like (excepting Calice in 3. H. 8. cap. 5.) were made against gainſt captaines and ſouldiers concerning their number, wages, and departing without licence, and the triall thereof, and the departing was made felony, without the benefit of Clergie, and Juſtices of Peace ſhould determine it. ☞ 6 Where diuers of the Kings Maieſties ſubiects haue according to their dutie ſent forth into diuers places, both within this Realme and without, many ſouldiers well furniſhed with good horſes and harneis, to their great charges, and ſome of the ſaid ſouldiers haue deceitfully made away their horſe and harneis. By meane whereof, the Kings Highneſſe hath not onely béene deſtitute of the ſame ſouldiers in the time of néed, but alſo the owners haue béen deceiued of their horſes and harneis, being thereby leſſe able to refurniſh other ſouldiers, at the time of any new commandement. And ſometime the captaines haue taken of the Kings Highneſſe wages for ſouldiers departed, by meane whereof the Kings Maieſtie hath ſuſtained great payments, and yet hath not béene truly ſerued for the ſame, not little to the diſpleaſure of the King. For remedie whereof, be it enacted &c. That if any ſouldier hereafter, ſeruing the King in his warres, in any his dominions, or on the ſeas, or beyond the ſeas, or in Scotland, after the firſt day of Aprill next comming, do ſell, giue away, or wilfully purloine, or otherwiſe exchange, alter, or put away any Horſe, Gelding, or Mare, or any Harneis, wherewith he ſhall be ſet forth, that then euerie ſuch ſouldier ſo offending vpon due proofe or teſtimonie, to be taken before the Lieutenant, high Admirall, the Kings Deputy, Viceadmirall, Warden, or Captaine, and in their abſence before any of their deputies, ſhalbe impriſoned by the ſame Lieutenant, or any other before named, there to remaine without baile or mainprize, vntill he haue ſatiſfied to the partie, owner of the Horſe, Gelding, Mare, or Harneis, ſo by him ſold, purloined, exchanged, wilfully loſt, altered, or otherwiſe made away. And if ſuch ſouldier ſo offending, fortune to eſcape from the Lieutenants, and other the foreſaid perſons, without the puniſhment, and reſtitution aforeſaid, that then the ſame ſouldier, vpon complaint made by the partie grieued, or his executors or adminiſtrators, vpon due proofe thereof to be made to any Juſtice or Juſtices of Peace, in the parts where ſuch ſouldier ſo offending ſhall be found, ſhall be by ſuch Juſtice or Juſtices committed to ward, there to remaine without baile or mainprize, vntill he haue ſatiſfied the partie grieued, his executors or adminiſtrators, of, and for ſuch Horſes, Geldings, or Mares, and Harneis, ſo by any ſuch ſouldier wilfully loſt, exchanged, altered, or otherwiſe purloined. Prouided alwaies, that if the ſaid ſouldier bring any ſufficient warrant or teſtimonie before the ſaid Juſtice, from the ſaid Lieutenant, or any of the perſons abouenamed in writing, vnder the ſeale of any of them, teſtifying that the ſame Horſe, or Harneis, were loſt in the Kings ſeruice, againſt the will of the ſaid ſouldier, or that the ſame Horſe or Harneis was taken by the ſaid lieutenant, or any of the others before named, from the ſaid ſouldier, for any reaſonable reſpect, & appointed to ſome other, to ſerue in ỹ place and ſtéd of the ſaid ſouldier: that then euerie ſuch ſouldier not bringing to the owner the ſaid Horſe & Harneis, ſhalbe diſcharged thereof, againſt the owner thereof: And that then euerie ſuch ſouldier to whom the ſaid Horſe or Harneis ſhalbe appointed, as is aforeſaid, not bringing home to the owner the ſaid Horſe and Harneis after he ſhalbe diſcharged, to ſuffer like paine as is aforeſaid. And be it alſo enacted, that if any ſouldier ſeruing as is aforeſaid, depart without licence of the Lieutenant, or any of the other aboue named, with bodie or otherwiſe, being in the enemies countrie, or elſewhere in the K. ſeruice, or out of any garriſon where he or they ſhal be appointed to ſerue, that then euerie ſuch ſouldier ſo departing without licence, to be taken & iudged as a Felon, and to be executed as in caſe of Felony, without hauing any aduantage of his Clergie or Sanctuarie, and that the Juſtices of euerie Shire where any ſuch ſouldiers ſhall be taken, ſhall haue full power to inquire, heare & determine all & euery the ſaid offences, concerning euery ſuch departure, as they doe and may in other caſes of Felony, committed in the Shire where ſuch ſouldier ſhall be taken. And be it alſo &c. that if any Commiſſioner or Captaine, to whom the king ſhal direct his cõmandement by Commiſſion or Letters, for the leuying or ſetting forth of any men to ſerue the king in his warres, ſhall at any time after the ſaid firſt day of Aprill, for any gaine, reward, or other lucre, diſcharge any perſon or perſons, by him appointed to ſerue the King as a captaine, ſouldier, or pioner, of his ſeruice ſo appointed, & doe aſſigne any other perſon or perſons in his or their ſtéd, for any lucre or gaine, as is aforeſaid, that then euerie Commiſſioner, or other perſon ſo offending, ſhall forfeit to the king, for euerie ſuch default of euerie man ſo diſcharged, xx. ℔. to be leuied of his goods & cattels. And be it alſo enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, That if any captaine, being appointed to haue the order of any number of ſouldiers, vnder any other higher officer, doe for any cauſe licence any ſouldier in his retinue to depart from the field or Fortreſſe, where they ſhalbe appointed to ſerue, without the eſpecial aſſent and licence in writing of the Lieutenant, or the others before named, he ſhall forfeit and loſe for euerie ſuch ſouldier ſo by him licenced to depart, xx. ℔. to be leuied, as is aforeſaid, to the vſe of the King. And be it alſo &c. Prouided, that this Act, nor any thing therein contained, shall not extend to charge any lieutenant, or others abouenamed, for detaining or retaining any part of any the said souldiers wages, toward or for the payment of vitailes, harneis, weapons, or for any prest money prouided & deliuered to any such souldier. An. 2. E. 6. cap. 2.

Note that by a clause in the statute 4. & 5. Ph. & M. cap. 2. which see before in Armour 4. there is a further remedie giuen for their horse and armour, vnto such as set forth souldiers. And by the statute 4. & 5. Ph. & M. cap. 3. which see in Musters 1.

The article here of felonie is reuiued, and all the rest of the statute confirmed, with an addition, and some alteration of the cause of taking reward of tenant or friend. And also another penaltie set vpon Commissioners and Captaines, that shall take rewards to discharge men.

7 Añ 35. El. ca. 4. An Act was made for prouision for releise of Souldiers and Mariners, which was to endure no longer then to the end of the then next Parliament, which was Añ 39. And then cap. 21. there was an Act made for the explanation and continuance thereof, vnto the end of the next Parliament, which was Anno 43. Then cap. 3. the same former Statutes were continued till Easter then next, and from thencefoorth discontinued, and thereby further enacted as followeth.

8 Be it enacted &c. or in default thereof, by the Churchwardens and the petty constables of the same parish, or the more part of them, or in default of their agreement, by the order of such Justices, or Justice of Peace, as shall dwell in the same parish, or if none be there dwelling, in the parts next adioyning. And if any person shall refuse or neglect to pay anie such portion of money so tared, it shall be lawfull for the said Churchwardens and pety constables, and euerie of them, or in their defaults, for the said Justices of Peace, or Justice, to leuie such summe by distresse, and sale of the goods or chattels of the party so refusing or negleeting, rendring to the partie the ouerplus raised vpon such sale. And for the collecting and custodie of the summes tared, in forme aforesaid, Be it enacted, That the Churchwardens, and pety constables of euery parish, shall truly collect euery such summe, & the same shall pay ouer vnto the high constable, in whose diuision such parish shalbe situate, tenne dayes before the quarter Sessions, to be holden next before, or about the feast of the Natiuitie of Saint Iohn Baptist next, in the countie where the said parish shall be situate, and so from time to time, quarterly within tenne dayes before euerie quarter Sessions. And that euery such high constable, at euery such quarter Sessions in such county, shall pay ouer the same, to two such Justices of Peace, or to one of them, or two such other persons, or one of them, as shalbe by the more part of the Iust. of peace of the same county elected, to be treasurers of the said collection. The same other persons, to be elected treasurers, to be such as at the last taration of the Subsidie next before the same election, shall be valewed and sessed at tenne pounds in lands yerely, or at fifteene pounds in goods: which Treasurers in euery county so chosen, shall continue but for the space of one whole yere, and then giue vp their charge, with a due accompt of their receits and disbursements, at their meeting in Easter quarter sessions, or within x. dayes after, to such others, as shall from yeare to yeare in the forme aforesaid, successiuely be elected. And if any churchwarden, petty constable, or high constable, or his executors, or administrators shal faile to make payment in form aboue specified, Then euery churchwarden, and petty constable, his executors, or administrators so offending, shall forfeit the summe of twenty shillings: And euery high constable, his executors, or administrators, the summe of forty shillings, to be leuied by the Treasurers aforesaid, by distresse and sale in maner before expressed, and to be taken by the said treasurers in augmentation of their stocke, to the vses aforesaid. And if any treasurer, his executors or administrators, shall faile to giue vp his account within the time aforesaid, or shall be otherwise negligent in the execution of his charge, then it shall be lawfull for the more part of the Iustices of Peace, of the same county in their Sessions, to assesse such Fine vpon such Treasurer, his executors, or administrators, as in their discretion shall seeme conuenient, so it be not vnder the summe of fiue pounds. And for the true and iust distribution and imployment of the summes so receiued, according to the true meaning of this Act, Be it enacted by the authority aforesaid, that euerie Souldier or Mariner, hauing had his or their limmes lost, or disabled in their bodies by seruice, being in her Maiesties pay, as is aboue mentioned, or such as shall hereafter returne into this Realme, hurt or maimed, or grieuously sicke, shall repayre, if hee be able to trauell, and make his complaint to the Treasurers of the county out of which hee was pressed, or if hee were no prest man, to the Treasurers of the county where he was borne or last inhabited, by the space of three yeares, at his election: And if hee be not able to trauell, to the Treasurers of the county where hee shall land, or arriue, and shall bring a certificate vnto anie of the Treasurers aforesaid, vnder the hand and Seale of the Generall of the campe, or Gouernour of the Towne wherein he serued, and of the captaine of the Band, vnder whom hee serued, or his Lieutenant, or in the absence of the said Generall or Gouernor from the Marshall or Deputy of the Gouernour, or from any Admirall of her Maiesties Fleete, or in his absence from anie other Generall of her Maiesties ships at the seas, or in absence of such Generall, from the captaine of the ship wherein the said mariners or souldiers did serue the Quenes maiestie, containing the particulars of his hurts and seruices, which certificate shall be also allowed by the generall Muster master, for the time being, resident here within this Realme, or Receiuer generall of the muster Rolls, the Treasurer and Controller of her Maiesties Nauie, vnder his hand, for the auoyding of all fraud and counterfeiting: Then vpon such certificate, such Treasurers as are before expressed, shall according to the nature of his hurt, and commendation of his seruice, assigne vnto him such a portion of reliefe, as in their discretions shall seeme conuenient for his present necessitie, vntill the next quarter Sessions, at the which it shall be lawfull for the more part of the Iustices of Peace vnder their hands, to make an Instrument of graunt of the same, or like reliefe, to endure, as long as this Act shall stand or indure in force, if the same Souldier or Mariner shall so long liue, and the same pension not be duely reuoked or altered, which shall be a sufficient warrant to all Treasurers for the same county, to make payment of such pension vnto such persons quarterly, except the same shall be afterward by the said Iustices reuoked or altered. So that such reliefe as shall be assigned by such Treasurers or Iustices of Peace to any such souldier or mariner, hauing not borne office in the said wars, exceed not the summe in grosse nor yerely pension of ten pounds. Nor to any that hath borne office vnder the degree of a Lieutenant, the summe of xv. pounds. Nor to anie that hath serued in the office of Lieutenant, the summe of xx. pounds. And yet neuertheless, it shall and may be lawfull to and for the Iustices of Peace and others, hauing authoritie by this Act to assigne pensions to Souldiers and Mariners, vpon anie iust cause to reuoke, diminish or alter the same from time to time, according to their discretions in the generall quarter ſeſſions of the Peace, or generall aſſemblies for cities or townes corporate, where the ſame penſion ſhall be graunted. And whereas it muſt néedes fall out, that many of ſuch hurt and maimed ſouldiers and mariners, doe arriue in Ports, and places farre remote from the Counties, whence they are by vertue of this Act, to receiue their yearely annuities, and penſions, as alſo they are preſcribed, by this Act, to obtaine the allowance of their certificates, from the Muſter maſter, or receiuer generall of the muſter rolls, who commonly is like to abide about the Court or London, ſo as they ſhall néed at the firſt, prouiſion for the bearing of their charges, to ſuch places. Be it therefore enacted, That it may be lawfull for the Treaſurers of the countie where they ſhall arriue, in their diſcretion vpon their certificate (though not allowed) to giue them any conuenient reliefe for their iourney, to carry them to the next county, with a teſtimoniall of their alowance, to paſſe on towards ſuch a place. And in like manner ſhall it be lawfull for the Treaſurer of the next county to doe the like. And ſo from county to county (in the direct way) til they come to the place where they are directed to find their maintenance, according to the tenor of this Statute. And for the better execution of this Act in all the braunches thereof. Be it enacted, that euery the Treaſurers, in their ſeuerall Counties, ſhall kéepe a true booke of computation, of all ſuch ſummes as they leuie, and alſo a Regiſter of the names of euerie ſuch perſon vnto whom they ſhall haue diſburſed anie reliefe. And ſhall alſo preſerue, or enter euery certificate, by warrant whereof ſuch reliefe hath béene by them diſburſed. And alſo that the Muſter maſter, or receiuer generall of the muſter Rolles, ſhall kéepe a Booke wherein ſhall bée entred, the names of all ſuch, whoſe certificates ſhall be by him allowed, with an abſtract of their certificates. And that euery Treaſurer returning, or not accepting the certificate brought vnto him from the ſaid Muſter maſter, ſhall write and ſubſcribe the cauſe of his not accepting, or not allowing thereof, vnder the ſaid certificat, or on the backe thereof. And be it further enacted, That if anie Treaſurer ſhall wilfully refuſe to diſtribute & giue any reliefe, according to the forme of this Act, That it ſhall be lawfull for the Iuſtices of Peace, in their quarter Seſſions, to fine ſuch Treaſurers, by their diſcretions, as aforeſaid. The ſame fine to be leuied by diſtreſſe and ſale thereof, to be proſecuted by anie two of them, whom they ſhal authorize. And be it alſo enacted, That euery ſouldier or mariner that ſhall be taken begging, in anie place, within this realme, after the feaſt of Eaſter next, or anie that ſhall counterfeit anie certificate in this Act expreſſed, ſhall for euer loſe his annuitie or penſion, and ſhalbe taken, déemed, and adiudged, as a common rogue, or vacabond perſon, and ſhal haue, and ſuſtaine the ſame, and the like paines, impriſonment and punihment, as is appointed and prouided for common rogues and vacabond perſons. Prouided alwayes and be it enacted, that all the ſurpluſage of money which ſhall be remaining in the ſtocke of any county, ſhall by the diſcretion of the more part of the Iuſtices of peace in their quarter ſeſſions be ordred, diſtributed and beſtowed, vpon ſuch good & charitable vſes, and in ſuch forme as are limited and appointed in the ſtatutes made & now in force, concerning reliefe of the poore, and punihment of rogues & beggers. Prouided alwayes, that the Iuſtices of Peace, within any county of this Realme or Wales, ſhall not intromit or enter into any city, borough, place, or towne corporate, where is any Iuſtice of Peace, for any ſuch citie, borough, place, or towne corporate, for the execution of any article of this Act: But that it ſhalbe lawfull to the Iuſtice and Iuſtices of Peace, Maiors, Bailifes, and other head Officers of thoſe cities, boroughs, places, & townes corporate, where there is any Iuſtice of peace, to proceed to the execution of this Act, within the precinct and compas of their Liberties, in ſuch maner as the Iuſtices of peace in any county may do, by vertue of this Act. And that euery Iuſtice of peace within euery ſuch city, borough, place or towne corporate, for euery offence by him committed, contrarie to the meaning of this Statute, ſhall be fineable, as other Iuſtices of Peace at large in the counties are in this Act appointed to be. And that the Maior and Iuſtices of Peace in euery ſuch city, borough, place and towne corporate, ſhall haue authority by this preſent Act to appoint any perſon for the receiuing of the ſaid money, and paying the ſame, within ſuch citie, borough, place, or towne corporate, which perſon ſo appoynted, ſhall haue authority to doe all ſuch things, and bée ſubiect to all ſuch penalties, as high Conſtables by vertue of this Act ſhould haue or be. And be it enacted, That all forfeitures to be forfeited by anie Treaſurer, Collector, Conſtable, Churchwarden, or other perſon, for any cauſe mentioned in this Act, ſhall be imployed to the reliefe of ſuch Souldiers and Mariners, as are by this Act appoynted to take and haue reliefe. And after that reliefe ſatiſfied, then the ouerplus thereof, with the ouerplus of the ſtocke, remaining in any of the ſaid Treaſurers hands, ſhalbe imployed as is before mentioned, to the charitable vſes, expreſſed in the ſaid Statutes, concerning the reliefe of poore, & for punihment of rogues and beggers (except the ſaid Iuſtices, or the more part of them, ſhall thinke méet to reſerue and kéepe the ſame in ſtocke for the maintenaunce and reliefe of ſuch Souldiers and Mariners, as out of the ſame county may afterward be appoynted, to receiue reliefe and penſions.) And that the reliefe appointed to be giuen by this Act, ſhall be giuen to Souldiers & Mariners, out of the county or place where they were preſſed, ſo farre forth as the taxation limited by this Act, will extend. And if the whole taxation there, ſhall be before imployed, according to the meaning of this Act, or that they ſhall not be preſt men, then out of the place where they were borne or laſt inhabited, by the ſpace of iij. yéeres, at his or their election. Prouided alwayes & be it enacted, that euery penſion aſſigned heretofore to any ſouldier or mariner, or that ſhalbe aſſigned before the ſaid feaſt of Eaſter next, notwithſtanding the diſcontinuance of the ſaid two former Acts, ſhall ſtand in force, and ſhall yeerely from and after the ſaid feaſt of Eaſter next, be ſatisfied and paied, out of ſuch tarations and forfeitures, as ſhal be made, collected, and leuied by force of this Act, ſo long as the ſaid penſion ſhall remaine in force, without ſuch reuocation, or diminiſhing, as is before in this Act mentioned. Which clauſe of reuocation or diminiſhing before mentioned, ſhall extend as well to penſions heretofore aſſigned, as to ſuch as at any time hereafter, before, or after the ſaid feaſt of Eaſter, ſhalbe aſſigned, to any perſon or perſons. Prouided alwaies, and be it further enacted, that this Act, nor any thing therein contained, shall not extend to the clerk of the Crown, clerks of the peace, clerkes of gaole deliuery, neither to any of the Prenotaries, within the counties of Wales and Chester, or within the counties Palantine of Lancaster and Durham, or any of them, to make any transcript of any such attainder, conuiction, or outlawrie, of any person or persons conuicted, attainted, or outlawed, before the kings Iustices of his counties of Wales nor Chester, or counties of Lancaster, Durham, or any of them, but that the same Records shall and may remaine, and be in the custody and keeping of the said clerkes and Prenotaries, in such maner and wise, as they are at this day: this act or any thing therein contained to the contrarie notwithstanding. Anno 34. H. 8 cap. 14. *

And be it further enacted, That all currying and dressing of leather, commonly called drie Currying, and Frizing, shall bee construed, to be dressing and currying of the manner of Spanish leather, of what colour soeuer it be: And that to all Artificers, (other then Shoomakers, yearely betweene the last of September, and the twentieth of Aprill) it shall be lawfull to vse all kinds of of leather dressed and curried in that manner of drie Currying and Frizing, as they lawfully might before the making of this Act, So that the same leather so to be vsed, be well and sufficiently tanned, according to the forme prescribed in this Act, And also well and substantially dressed, curried, and frized, in the manner of drie Currying and frizing aboue said. And be it enacted by the authoritie aforesaid, That this Act, and euerie part thereof shall bee construed and adiudged to extend to Wales, as amply as it doth to this realm, to all intents, constructions, and purposes. And be it enacted &c. That if any leather, wrought, cut, or vnwrought, to the intent to be sold or bartered, shall hereafter vnlawfully be transported, or purposed to be transported into the parts beyond the Sea, from and out of any Port, Hauen, or Creeke of this Realme, or Wales, Euerie Controller, Customer, Surueyor, Collector of Tonnage and Pondage, and the Searchers, and the Deputie of any of them, or any other persons hearing or knowing by any wayes of any leather meant to be transported from any place within his Office, and doe not his best indeuour to seise the same, or being transported, doe not disclose or cause to be disclosed the same within fortie dayes next after such knowledge, or hearing of the same, in some Court of Record, so as the offendor may be punished according to the Lawes in that case prouided, shall for euerie the first offence committed against this Article, forfeit 100. l. and for the second offence, shall forfeit his Office. And be it enacted, That euerie Customer, Officer, or Officers Deputie, that shall make any false Certificate of the arriuall of any leather in any Port, Creeke, or place of this Realme, shal also forfeit for euery such offence 100. l. Prouided alway, That neither this Act, nor any Article, Exposition, or any thing therein contained, shall extend to Scottish hides, to be brought into the towne of Barwick, out of the Realme of Scotland, being registred in a booke therefore to be kept, by such person or persons, as the Maior of the said towne for the time being, shall thereunto name and appoint, with the name and surname of the buyer and seller, to the intent the English hides might be knowne from the Scottish, But that the inhabitants of the said towne of Barwicke may send, carrie, and transport such Scottish hides as they lawfully might transport before the making of this Act. This Act to endure vntill the end of the next Session of the next Parliament. And be it further enacted &c. That as well one Statute made in the fift yeare of the raigne of our late Soueraigne Ladie Queene Elizabeth, intituled, An Act concerning Tanners, Curriers, and other Artificers occupying cutting of leather, as all former Statutes, and euerie part or parts of any former Statute or Statutes thereby repealed, shal from thenceforth be vtterly repealed for euer. An. 1. Iac. ca. 22. And this Statute of 5. El. ca. 8. is likewise repealed by the Act of Continuance and Repeale made An. 1. Iac. cap. 25.

25 Whereas by the Statute made An. 1. Iac. cap. 22. it plainely appeareth, That the intent and meaning thereof was to make void all former Statutes made concerning Tanners, Curriers, Shoomakers, & other Artificers, occupying the cutting of leather, and to comprehend in one Statute all things mentioned in the same former lawes needfull to be enacted concerning Tanners, Curiers, Shoomakers, and other Artificers occupying the cutting of leather: and for that in diuers branches of the said late Statute, touching the sealing of leather, amongst many other kinds of tanned leather therein particularly named to be sealed, a rate is set downe to be payed for sealing of Sheepe skinnes, as if Sheepe skinnes had beene by the intent of the former lawes vsually sealed, whereas in truth Sheep skinnes are not meet to be sealed, nore were at any time appointed or limited by any former law to be sealed, because the sealing of them is a fruitlesse charge, tending to the great hurt and losse to many thousand poore men, and for the good of none, but onely for the gaine of the Sealer thereof: For reformation whereof, bee it enacted &c. That no person or persons shall at any time hereafter incurre any penaltie, losse, or forfeiture, for housing, selling, or buying of any tanned Sheepe skinnes, vnsearched, or vnsealed, so as the said Sheepe skinnes vnsearched and vnsealed, shall be wrought & conuerted into made wares within this realme of England: Any thing in the said Statute to the contrarie notwithstanding. 2 A Coroner ought to inquire theſe things, if hee be ſent to by the Kings Bailifes, or other honeſt men of the countrey. Firſt hee ſhall goe to the places where any man is ſlaine, or ſodainely dead, or wounded, or where houſes are broken, or where treaſure is ſaid to be found, and ſhall forthwith commaund foure of the next townes, or fiue, or ſix, to appeare before him in ſuch a place, and when they are come thither, the Coroner vpon the oath of them ſhall inquire in this manner: that is to wit, if they know where the perſon was firſt ſlaine, whether it were in any houſe, field, bed, Tauerne, or in companie, and who were there. Likewiſe it is to be inquired who were culpable, either of the act, or of the force, and who preſent, either men or women, and of what age ſoeuer they be (if they can ſpeake, or haue any diſcretion) and as many as ſhall be found culpable by the Inqueſt, of any of the ſaid things, ſhall be taken and deliuered to the Sherife, and ſhall be committed to the Goale, & ſuch as ſhall bee founden there, and be not culpable, ſhall be attached vntill the comming of the Iuſtices, and their names ſhall bee written in their Rolles. If it fortune any man to be ſlaine ſodainely, which is found in the fields, or in the woods, firſt it is to bee ſeene, whether hee were ſlaine in the ſame place or not, and if hee were brought and layed there, they ſhall doe as much as they can to follow their ſteps that brought him thither, Bailifes Treaſure Oath Enquire Sherife Attach thet, whether he were brought vpon a horse, or in a cart. It shall be inquired also, if the dead person were knowne, or else a stranger, and where he lay the night before. And if any bee found culpable of the murther, the Coroners shall immediately goe vnto his house, & shall inquire what goods he hath, and what corne hee hath in his grange, and if he be a free man, they shall inquire how much land hee hath, and what it is worth yearely, & further, what croppe he hath vpon the ground. And when they haue thus inquired vpon euerie thing, they shall cause all the land, corne, and goods to be vained, in like manner as if they should bee sold incontinently, & thereupon they shall be deliuered to the whole Towneship, which shall be answerable before the Iustices for all. And likewise of his freehold, how much it is worth yearely, ouer & aboue the seruices due to the Lords of the fee, & the land shall remaine in the Kings hands, vntill that the Lords of the fee haue made fine for it. And immediately vpon these things being inquired, the bodies of such persons being dead or slaine shall be buried. In likomanner it is to bee inquired of them that bee drowned, or suddainely slaine or strangled, whether they were drowned, slaine, or strangled by the sign of the cord tied strait about their neckes, or by any of their members, or any other hurt found vpon their bodies, whereupon they shall proceed in forme aboue-said. And if he were not slaine, then ought the Coroner to attach the finders, and all other in the company. A Coroner also ought to inquire of Treasure that is founden, who were the finders, & likewise who is suspected thereof, and that may be well perceiued, where one liueth riotously, haunting Tauernes, and hath done so of long time, hereupon he may be attached for this suspition, by iiij. or vj. or moe pledges, if he may be found. Further, if any be appealed of Rape, he must be attached, if the appeale be fresh, and they doe see an apparant signe of truth, by effusion of bloud, or an open cry made, and such shall be attached by iiij. or vj. pledges, if they may be found. If the appeale were without cry, or without any manifest signe or token, two pledges shalbe sufficiet. Vpon appeale of wounds, especially if the wounds be mortall, the parties appealed shall bee taken immediately, and kept vntill it be knowne perfectly whether he that is hurt shall recouer or not, and if he die, the defendant shall be kept. And if he recouer health, they shalbe attached by iiij. or vj. pledges, after as the wound is great or small. If it be of a maime, he shall find no lesse then iiij. pledges, if it be of a small wound, ij. pledges shall suffice. Also all wounds ought to be viewed, the length, breadth, and deepenesse, and with what weapons, and in what part of the bodie the wound or hurt is, and how many be culpable, & how many wounds there be, and who gaue the wound, all which things must be inrolled in the Roll of the Coroners. Moreouer, if any be appealed of an act done as principall, they that be appealed of ỳ force, shall be attached also, and surely kept in ward, vntill the principall be attainted. Concerning Horses, Boats, Carts, &c. whereby any are slaine, that properly are called Deodand, they shall bee valued and deliuered vnto the Townes, as before is said. Concerning Wrecke of the sea, whereseuer it be found, if any lay hands on it, he shall be attached by sufficient pledges, and the price of the wrecke shall be valued and deliuered to the townes. If any bee suspected of the death of any man, being in danger of life, he shall be taken and imprisoned, as before is said. In like manner hue and cry shalbe leuied vpon all Murtherers, Burglaries, and for men slain, be in perill of death, as other where is vsed in England, and all shall follow the hue and steps as neere as can bee. And hee that doth not, and is conuict thereupon, shall be attached to be afore Iustices of the Gaols, &c. Officium Coronatoris, Anno 4. Edw. 1.

And that he also cause to come before them the Coroner, of whom they shall take ỳ Enquests, with all the Rolls of his time, while he was Coroner to our Lord the King, and the Enquirors shall put their Seales to the Rolles of the said Coroner, and being so sealed, shall redeliuer them to the Coroner, so that hee may haue them in a readinesse, when the Iustices in Eire shall come to sit in the Countie, or that the King shall ordaine otherwise for the same. And if the Coroner be dead, the same order shall be vsed with his heire for the time of his father, so that neither the Coroner, nor his heire, nor their clerkes may not forge their Rolls, before the comming of the Iustices, nor otherwise to doe any thing against the Crowne, in preiudice of the King, in dammage of his people, and to the hinderance of right, as before this time hath beene vsed. And then the said Enquirors shall cause the Baylifes aforesaid to sweare, That well and truly they shall do those things wherewith they shall be charged by the King and his Counsell, and they shal not conceale any thing, & after that they are all sworne, each Baylife of Wapentake, Hundred, and Franchise, shal be particularly charged, that he bring before the said Enquirors, at a day and place certaine (which to him shall be alligned) the names of all the whole Townes, halfe Townes, & Hamlets within his Wapentake, Hundred, or Franchise, written in Rols; and at the day and at the same place, shall deliuer them to the said Enquirors, and then shall the said Enquirors giue charge to the said Baylifes, that they shall cause to come before them at a certaine day and certaine place which they shal appoint, out of euery whole Towne viij. men, out of euery halfe Towne vj. and out of euery Hamlet iiij. men of the wisest and honestest there inhabiting (except the Lords of the said whole Townes,

And then in 14.H.8. there was an other Act made of much like effect, as the former Act that was made Anno 7.H.8.ca.8. which Act made Anno 14.H.8. was made to indure to the end of the next Parliament. And after Anno 27.H.8.ca.27. a great Act was made for the erection and authoritie of the court of Augmentations, and that the Abbey lands should be in the suruey of the court. And Añ 27.H. 8.ca.28. the said Act made Añ 14.H.8. was made perpetuall, with some other clauses annexed. And after in Añ 7.Ed.6.ca.1. it appeareth that H.viij. by his letters patents had dissolued aswell the said Court of Augmentations erected by parliament An.27.H.8.ca. 27. as the said court of generall Surueyors of the Kings lands, erected by parliament 33.H.8.cap. 39. And that after H.viij. by letters patents erected a court, called the court of Augmentations and reuenues of his Crowne. And after Ann.7.Ed.6. cap.1. the said Letters Patents were confirmed, and authoritie giuen to king Edward the first during his life, to alter, vnite, or dissolue by his letters Patents the said last erected Court. And also the court of the First fruits and Tenths, the court of the Kings Wardes, and the Court of the Duchie of Lancaster, with diuers articles concerning those matters. But king Edward the first died before anie such alteration, vniting, or dissoluing. Prouided also, That neither this Act, nor any thing therein contained, shall extend to take away or abridge the authoritie or iurisdiction of the Ecclesiasticall censures, for any cause or matter, but that the Archbishops and Bishops, and other Ecclesiasticall Iudges, may doe, and proceed, as before the making of this Act, they lawfully did or might haue done: Any thing in this Act to the contrarie notwithstanding. An. 23. Eliz. cap. 1.

11 Forasmuch as the good felicitie and comfort of the whole Estate of this Realme consisteth (onely next vnder God) in the suretie and preseruation of the Quænes most excellent Maiestie: And for that it hath manifestly appeared that sundrie wicked plots and meanes haue of late been deuised and layed, as well in forreine parts beyond the Seas, as also within this Realme, to the great endangering of her Highnesse most royall person, and to the vtter ruine of the whole Commonweale, if by Gods mercifull prouidence the same had not beene reuealed: therefore for preuenting of such great perils as might hereafter otherwise grow, by the like detestable and diuellish practises, at the humble suit and earnest petition and desire of the Lords Spirituall and Temporall, and the Commons in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authoritie of the same Parliament, Be it enacted and ordained, if at any time after the end of this present Session of Parliament, any open inuasion or rebellion shall be had or made into or within any of her Maiesties Realmes or Dominions, or any act attempted, tending to the hurt of her Maiesties most Royall person, by or for any person that shall or may pretend any title to the Crowne of this Realme after her Maiesties decease: Or any thing shall be compassed or imagined, tending to the hurt of her Maiesties Royall person, by any person, or with the priuitie of any person that shall or may pretend title to the Crowne of this Realme: That then by her Maiesties Commissiõ vnder her great Seale, the Lords & other of her Highnesse Priuie Councell, and such other Lords of Parliament to be named by her Maiestie, as with the said Priuie Councell shall make vp the number of foure and twentie at the least, hauing with them for their assistance in that behalfe, such of the Iudges of the Courts of Record at Westminster, as her Highnesse shall for that purpose assigne and appoint, or the more part of the same Councell, Lords & Iudges, shall by vertue of this Act haue authoritie to examine all and euerie the offences aforesaid, and all circumstances thereof, and thereupon to giue sentence or iudgement, as vpon good proofe the matter shall appeare vnto them. And that after such sentence or iudgement giuen, and declaration thereof made and published by her Maiesties Proclamation vnder the great Seale of England, all persons against whom such sentence or iudgement shall be so giuen and published, shalbe excluded and disabled for euer to haue or claime, or to pretend to haue or claime the Crowne of this Realme, or of any her Maiesties Dominions: any former Law or Statute whatsoeuer to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding. And that thereupon all her Highnesse subiects shall and may lawfully by vertue of this Act, and her Maiesties direction in that behalfe, by all forcible and possible meanes pursue to death euerie such wicked person, by whom, or by whose meanes, assent or priuitie, any such inuasion or rebellion shall be in forme aforesaid denounced to haue beene made, or such wicked act attempted, or other thing compassed or imagined against her Maiesties person, and all their aiders, comforters and abetters. And if any such detestable act shalbe executed against her Highnesse most royall person, whereby her Maiesties life shall be taken away (which God of his great mercie forbid:) That then euery such person, by or for whom any such act shal be executed, and their issues being any wise assenting or priuie to the same, shal by vertue of this Act be excluded and disabled for euer, to haue or claime, or to pretend to haue or claime the said Crowne of this Realme, or of any other her Highnesse Dominions: Any former Law or Statute whatsoeuer to the contrarie in any wise notwithstanding. And that all the subiects of this Realme, and all other her Maiesties Dominions, shall and may lawfully, by vertue of this Act, by all forcible and possible meanes, pursue to death euery such wicked person, by whom, or by whose meanes, any such detestable fact shall be in forme hereafter expressed, denounced to haue been committed, and also their issues being any way assenting or priuie to the same, and all their aiders, comforters and abetters in that behalf. And to the end that the intention of this Law may be effectually executed, if her Maiesties life shall be taken away by any violent or vnnaturall meanes (which God defend:) Be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the Lords & others which shall be of her Maiesties priuie Councell at the time of such her decease, or the more part of the same Councell, ioyning vnto them, for their better assistance, fiue other Earles, & seuen other Lords of Parliament at the least (foreseeing that none of the said Earles, Lords or Councell be knowne to be persons that may make any title to the Crown) those persons which were chiefe Iustices of either Bench, Master of the Rolles, and chiefe Baron of the Exchequer, at the time of her Maiesties death, or in default of the said Iustices, Master of the Rolls, and chiefe Baron, some other of those which were Iustices of some of the Courts of Record at Westminster, at the time of her Highnesse decease, to supplie their places, or any foure and twentie or more of them, whereof eight to be Lords of Parliament, not being of the Priuie Councell, shall to the

And if any ſuch power and force ſhall be leuied or moued in the diſturbance of the due execution of this Law, by any perſon that ſhall or may pretend any title to the Crowne of this Realme, whereby this Law may not in all things be fully executed, according to the effect and true meaning of the ſame: That then euerie ſuch perſon ſhall by force of this Act be thereof excluded and diſabled for euer to haue or claime, or to pretend to haue or claime the Crowne of this Realme, or any other her Highneſſe Dominions: any former Law or Statute whatſoeuer to the contrarie notwithſtanding. And that no ſubiect of this Realme ſhal in any wiſe be impeached in bodie, lands or goods, at any time hereafter, for any thing to be done or executed, according to the tenor of this Law: any Law or Statute heretofore made to the contrarie in any wiſe notwithſtanding. And whereas of late many of her Maieſties good and faithfull ſubiects, haue in the name of God and with the teſtimonie of good conſciences, by one vniforme maner of writing vnder their hands and ſeales, and by their ſeuerall oathes voluntarily taken, ioyned themſelues together in one bond and aſſociation, to withſtand and reuenge to the vttermoſt, all ſuch malicious actions and attempts againſt her Maieſties moſt royall perſon: Now for the full explaning of all ſuch ambiguities and queſtions, as otherwiſe might happen to grow, by reaſon of any ſiniſter or wrong conſtruction or interpretation to be made or inferred, of or vpon the words or meaning thereof: Be it declared and enacted by the authoritie of this preſent Parliament, That the ſame aſſociation and euerie article and ſentence therein contained, as well concerning the diſallowing, excluding, or diſabling of any perſon that may or ſhall pretend any title to come to the Crowne of this Realme, as alſo for the purſuing and taking reuenge of any perſon for any ſuch wicked act or attempt, ſhall be maintained in the ſame aſſociation, that and ought to be in all things expounded and adiudged according to the true intent and meaning of this Act, and not otherwiſe nor againſt any other perſon or perſons. Anno 27. Eliz. cap. 1.

12. For deuoyding of all ſtaies and delayes hereafter to be vſed, or hereafter take place, to the hinderance of the due and ſpeedie execution of the Statutes made in the three and thirtieth yeare of her Maieſties raigne (which ſee before 11.) Be it enacted by the authoritie of this preſent Parliament, That euerie Fooffement, Gift, Grant, Couenance, Alienation, Eſtate, Leaſe, Aſſurance, and Limitation of vſe, of, or out of any lands, tenements, or hereditaments whatſoeuer, had or made at any time ſince the beginning of the Queens Maieſties raigne, or at any time hereafter to be had or made by any perſon which hath not repaired, or ſhall not repaire to ſome Church, Chappell, or vſuall place of Common prayer, but hath forborne, or ſhall forbeare the ſame, contrarie to the tenor of the ſaid Statute, and which is, or ſhall be reuocable at the pleaſure of ſuch offender, or in any wiſe mainly or indirectly meant or intended, to, or for the behoofe, reliefe or maintenance, or at the diſpoſition of any ſuch offender, or wherwith, or whereby, or in conſideration whereof ſuch offender, or his familie ſhall be maintained, relieued, or kept, ſhall be deemed and taken to be vtterly fruſtrate and void, as againſt the Queenes Maieſties, for, or concerning the louying and paying of ſuch ſummes of money, as any ſuch perſon by the Lawes or Statutes of the Realme already made, ought to pay or forfeit, for not comming or repairing to any Church, Chappell, or vſuall place of Common prayer, or for ſaying, hearing, or being at any Maſſe, and ſhall alſo be ſeiſed and had, to and for her Maieſties vſe, and behoofe, as hereafter in this Act is mentioned: Any pretence, colour, fained conſideration, or expreſſing of any vſe, to the contrarie notwithſtanding. And further be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, That euerie conuiction heretofore recorded for any offence before mentioned, not already eſtreated or certified into the Queens Maieſties Court of Exchequer, ſhall from the Juſtices before whom the record of ſuch conuiction ſhall bee remaining, bee eſtreated and certified into the Queens Maieſties Court of Exchequer, before the end of Eaſter terme next comming, in ſuch conuenient certaintie for the time, and other circumſtances, as the Court of Exchequer may thereupon award out Proces for ſeiſure of the lands and goods of euerie ſuch offender, as hath not paid their ſaid forfeitures according to the Lawes and Statutes in ſuch caſe prouided. And that euerie conuiction hereafter for any offence before mentioned, ſhal be in the Court commonly called the Kings Bench, or at the Aſſiſes or generall Goale deliuerie, and not elſewhere, and ſhall from the Juſtices before whom the record of ſuch conuiction ſhall remaine, be eſtreated and certified into the ſaid Court of Exchequer, before the end of the terme next enſuing after euerie ſuch conuiction, in ſuch conuenient certaintie, as

That euerie such offender in not repairing to Diuine seruice, but forbearing the same, contrarie to the said Estatute; as hath beene heretofore committed for such offence, and hath not reasonable excuse, and beene conformable, according to the true meaning of the said Estatute, shall forthwith after any iudgment or conuiction, pay into the receipt of the said Exchequer, all such summes of money, as according to the rate of twentie pounds for euerie moneth, eyther in the same moneth, eyther in the same conuiction, doe grow or become payable, in forme as hereafter is limited: That is to say, the first moneth thereof before Easter, and of euerie Trinitie Terme, and the other moneth thereof before the end of the next Hillarie Terme, or at such other times, as by the Lord Lieutenant, Chancellor, and chiefe Baron of the Exchequer, or any two of them, shall by composition vpon good cause and reason taken, be limited, betweene the end of the said next Trinitie Terme, if any such composition shall happen to be. And shall also in euerie Easter and Michaelmas Terme, vntill such time as the said person doe make submission, and be conformable, according to the true meaning of the said Statute, pay into the said receipt of the Exchequer twentie pounds for euerie moneth, which shall incurre in all that meane time. And be it also enacted by the authoritie aforesaid, That euerie such offendor in not repairing to Diuine Seruice, but forbearing the same, contrarie to the said Estatute, as hereafter shall fortune to be thereof once conuicted, shall in such of the Termes of Easter and Michaelmas, as shall be next after such conuiction, pay into the said receipt of Exchequer after the rate of twentie pounds for euerie moneth, which shall be contained in the Indictment, whereupon such conuiction shall be. And shall also for euerie moneth after such conuiction without any other indictment or conuiction, pay into the receipt of the Exchequer aforesaid, at two times in the yeare: that is to say, in euerie Easter Terme and Michaelmas Terme, as much as then shal remain vnpaid, after the rate of twentie pounds for euery month after such conuiction. And if default shall be made in any part of paiment aforesaid, contrarie to the forme herein before limited: that then and so often the Maiestie shall and may by Proces out of the said Exchequer, take, seise, and enioy all the goods, and two parts as well of all the lands, tenements, and hereditaments, leases and farmes of such offendor, as of all other the lands, tenements, and hereditaments, liable to such seisure, or to the penalties aforesaid, by the true meaning of this Act, leauing the third part onely of the same lands, tenements, and hereditaments, leases and farmes, to and for the maintenance and relieefe of the same offendor, his wife, children, and familie. And for the more speedie conuiction of such offendor, in not repairing to Diuine Seruice, but forbearing the same, contrarie to the said Estatute: Be it enacted by the authoritie aforesaid, That the Indictment of euerie such offendor mentioning the not comming of such offendor to the Church of the Parish where such person at any time before such Indictment was, or his house, or residence, not to any other Church, Chappell, or vsuall place of Common prayer, shall be sufficient in the law, and that it shall not be needfull to mention in any such Indictment, that the partie offendor was, or is inhabiting within this Realme of England, or any other the Maiesties Dominions. But if it shall happen any such offendor then not to bee within this Realme, or other her Maiesties Dominions, that in such case the partie be relieued by pleade put in that behalfe, and not otherwise. And that vpon the Indictment of such offendor, a Proclamation shall be made at the same Assises or Goale deliuerie, in which the Indictment shall be taken, if the same be taken at any Assise or Goale deliuerie, by which it shall be commaunded, That the bodie of such offendor shall appeare in the Sessions of the same Countie, before the Iustices next Assises or generall Goale deliuerie to be holden in the same Countie. And if at the said next Assises or Goale deliuerie, the said offendor so proclaimed shall not make appearance of record: That then vpon such default recorded, the same shalbe as sufficient a conuiction in law of the said offence, whereof the partie so thereby indicted, as is aforesaid, as if vpon the same Indictment a triall by twelue thereupon had proceeded and beene recorded. Prouided alwayes, That whensoeuer any such offendor, as is aforesaid, shall make submission, and become conformable, according to the forme limited by the said Estatute made in the three and twentieth yeare of this Queenes Maiesties raigne, or shall fortune to die: that then the forfeiture of twentie pounds for any moneth, or forfeiture of the lands of the same offendor from and after such submission and conformitie, or death, and full satisfaction of all the arrerages of twentie pounds monethly before such seisure due or payable shall ensue or be continued against such offendor, so long as the same person shall continue in comming to Diuine Seruice, according to the intent of the said Estatute. And where, by the said former Estatute, the third part of the forfeitures for not comming to Diuine Seruice, is limited to the poore: Be it further enacted by the authoritie aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawfull to and for the Lord Treasurer of England, Chauncellor, and chiefe Baron of the Exchequer, for the time being, or two of them, to assigne and dispose of the full third part of twentie pounds for euery moneth, payed or to be payed into the receipt of the Exchequer, as is aforesaid, for the reliefe and maintenance as well of the poore, and of the houses of correction, as of impotent and maimed Soldiers, as the same Lord Treasurer, Chauncellor, and chiefe Baron, or any two of them, shall order or appoint: any thing in the said Estatute made in the said three and twentieth yere of her Maiesties raigne mentioned, to the contrarie thereof in any wise notwithstanding. that then and ſo often the Kings Maieſtie, his heires &c. ſhall and may by Proces out of the ſaid Exchequer, take, ſeiſe, and enioy all the goods, and two parts as well of all the lands, tenements, and hereditaments, leaſes, and farmes of ſuch offendor, as of all other the lands, tenements, hereditaments lyable to ſuch ſeiſure, or to the penalties aforeſaid, by the true meaning of this Act, leauing the third part onely of the ſame lands, tenements, and hereditaments, leaſes, and farmes, to and for the maintenance and reliefe of the ſame offendor, his wife, children, and familie. And whereas by an Act made in the Seſſion of Parliament, holden by Prorogation at Weſtminſter, Anno 23. Eliz. intituled, An Act to retaine the ſubiects of the ſaid late Quéene in their due obedience, it was amongſt other things enacted &c. That euery perſon aboue the age of ſixtéene yeares, which ſhould not repayre to ſome Church, Chappell, or vſuall place of Common Prayer, but forbeare the ſame contrarie to the tenour of a Statute made in the firſt yeare of the raigne of the ſaid late Quéene, for vniformitie of Common Prayer, and being thereof lawfully conuicted, ſhould forfeit vnto the ſaid Quéene for euerie moneth after the end of the ſaid Seſſion of Parliament, which he or ſhe ſhould ſo forbeare, 20. l. of lawfull Engliſh money, as in and by the ſaid Act of Parliament more at large appeareth. And whereas afterwards by another Act of Parliament of the ſaid Quéene it was further enacted &c. (amongſt other things) how and when the ſaid payments of the ſaid 20. l. ſhould be made, and that if default ſhould be made in any part of any payment of the ſaid 20. l. contrarie to the forme in the ſaid laſt ſpecified Statute limited, that then and ſo often the ſaid Quéene ſhould and might by Proceſſe out of her Highneſſe Exchequer, take, ſeiſe, and enioy all the goods, and two parts as well of all the lands, tenements, and hereditaments, leaſes, and farmes of ſuch offendors, as of all other the lands, tenements, and hereditaments, lyable to ſuch ſeiſure, or to the penalties aforeſaid, by the true meaning of the ſaid Act of Parliament, leauing the third part onely of the ſame lands, tenements, &c. to and for the maintenance and reliefe of the ſame offendor, his wife, children, and familie, as in and by the laſt ſpecified Statute more at large alſo may appeare: Now for as much as the ſaid penaltie of 20. l. monethly is a greater burthen vnto men of ſmall liuing, then vnto ſuch as are of better abilitie, and do refuſe to come vnto Diuine Seruice, as aforeſaid, who rather then they will haue two parts of their lands to be ſeiſed, will be readie alwayes to pay the ſaid 20. l. according to the limitation of the ſaid Statutes, and yet retaine the reſidue of their liuings and inheritance in their owne hands, being of great yearely value, which they do for the moſt part imploy (as experience hath taught) to the maintenance of Superſtition and Popiſh Religion, and to the reliefe of Ieſuites, Seminaries, Popiſh Prieſts, and other dangerous perſons to the State: Therefore to the intent that hereafter the penaltie for not repaying to Diuine Seruice might be inflicted in better proportion vpon men of great abilitie, Be it enacted &c. That the Kings Maieſtie, his heires &c. ſhall from and after the Feaſt of S. Michael the Archangell next comming after the end of this Seſſion of Parliament, haue full power and libertie to refuſe the penaltie of 20. l. a moneth, though it be tendered readie to be payed according to the Law, and thereupon to ſeiſe and take to his owne vſe, and the vſes, intents, and purpoſes hereafter limited, two parts in three parts to be diuided as well of all the lands, tenements, & hereditaments, leaſes, and farmes, that at the time of ſuch ſeiſure ſhall be, or afterward ſhall come to any the ſaid offendors, in not comming to Church, or any other to his or her vſe, or in truſt for him or her, or at his or her diſpoſition, or whereby or wherewith, or in conſideration whereof ſuch offendor, or his family, or any of them, ſhall be relieued, maintained, or kept, as of all other lands, tenements, and hereditaments in any wiſe, or at any time lyable to ſuch ſeiſure, or to the penalties aforeſaid, and the ſame to retaine to his owne and other vſes, intents, and purpoſes hereafter in this Act appointed, till euery ſuch offendor ſhall conforme him or her ſelfe reſpectiuely, as aforeſaid, in lieu and full recompence of the 20. l. monethly, that during his ſuch ſeiſure and retainer ſhall incurre: any thing in the ſayd Statutes, or in any of them, or any other Statute to the contrarie in any wiſe notwithſtanding. And that whoſoeuer ſhall take the ſame in leaſe, or otherwiſe of his Maieſtie, his heires and ſucceſſors, ſhall giue ſuch ſecuritie not to commit nor ſuffer Waſt to bee committed in or vpon any the ſaid premiſſes, as by the Court of Exchequer ſhall bee allowed ſufficient. And for the better tryall how his Maieſties ſubiects ſtand affected in point of their loyaltie and due obedience, Bee it alſo &c. That from and after the end of this preſent Seſſion of Parliament it ſhall be lawfull to and for any Biſhop in his Dioceſſe, or any two Iuſtices of Peace, whereof one of them to be of the Quorum, within the limits of their iuriſdiction, out of the Seſſions, to require any perſon of the age of eighteene yeares, or aboue, being, or which ſhall bee conuict or indicted, of or for any Recuſancie (other then Noble men, or Noble women) for not repairing to diuine Seruice, according to the Lawes

The Oath

I A. B. doe truely and sincerely acknowledge, professe, testifie, and declare in my conscience before God and the world, That our Soueraigne Lord King Iames is lawfull and rightfull King of this Realme, and of all other his Maiesties Dominions and Countries: And that the Pope, neither of himselfe, nor by any authoritie of the Church or See of Rome, or by any other meanes with any other hath any power or authoritie to depose the King, or to dispose any of his Maiesties Kingdomes, or Dominions, or to authorize any forraine Prince to inuade or annoy him, or his Countries, or to discharge any of his Subiects of their allegiance and obedience to his Maiestie, or to giue licence or leaue to any of them to beare Armes, rayse tumult, or to offer any violence or hurt to his Maiesties royall Person, State, or Gouernment, or to any of his Maiesties Subiects, within his Maiesties Dominions. Also, I doe sweare from my heart, that notwithstanding any Declaration or Sentence of Excommunication or Deprauation made or graunted, or to be made or graunted by the Pope, or his Successors, or by any authoritie deriued, or pretended to bee deriued from him, or his See, against the sayd King, his Heires or Successors, or any absolution of the said Subiects from their obedience: I will beare faith and true allegiance to his Maiestie, his Heires and Successors, and him and them will defend to the vttermost of my power, against all Conspiracies and Attempts whatsoeuer, which shall be made against his or their Persons, their Crowne and Dignitie, by reason or colour of any such Sentence or Declaration, or otherwise, and will doe my best endeuour to disclose and make knowne vnto his Maiestie, his Heires and Successors, all Treasons and traiterous Conspiracies, which I shall know or heare of to bee against him, or any of them. And I doe further sweare, That I doe from my heart abhorre, detest, and abjure, as impious and hereticall, this damnable Doctrine and Position, That Princes which be excommunicated or depriued by the Pope, may bee deposed or murthered by their Subiects, or any other whatsoeuer. And I do beleeue, and in conscience am resolued, that neither the Pope, nor any person whatsoeuer, hath power to absolue me of this Oath, or any part thereof, which I acknowledge by good and full authoritie to be lawfully ministred vnto me, and doe renounce all Pardons and Dispensations to the contrarie. And all these things I doe plainely and sincerely acknowledge and sweare, according to these expresse words by mee spoken, and according to the plaine and common sence and vnderstanding of the same words, without any equiuocation, or mentall euasion, or secret reseruation whatsoeuer. And I do make this recognition and acknowledgement heartily, willingly, and truely, vpon the true faith of a Christian. So helpe me God. Vnto which Oath so taken, the said person shall subscribe his or her name or marke. And be it further enacted &c. That no Indictment or Indictments had or found, or hereafter to be had or found against any person or persons, for not repayring to some Church or Chappell, or vsuall place of Common Prayer, but absenting him or her selfe by the space of one moneth, contrarie to the Lawes and Statutes in that behalfe prouided, or for not receiuing the said Sacrament contrarie to this present Law, nor any Proclamati-

Cui in vita.

IN caſe when the Huſband loſt by default a tenement that was ỹ right of his wife, it was a hard caſe that the wife after the death of the huſband had none other recouery but by a writ of right: Wherfore our ſoueraigne Lord the king hath ordained, that the woman after the death of her huſband, ſhal recouer by a writ of Entre, called Cui ipſa in vita ſua contradicere non potuit, which ſhal be pleaded in forme vnder written. If the tenant do except againſt the demand of the wife, that ſhee entred by by iudgement, and it be found, that his entry was by default, whereto the Tenant of neceſſity muſt make anſwere, if it be required of him, then he ſhal be further compelled to ſhew his right, according to the forme of the writ that he had purchaſed before againſt the Huſband and the wife. And if hee can verifie that he hath, or had right in the tenement demaunded, the woman ſhall get nothing by her writ. But if he cannot verifie it, the woman ſhall recouer the tenement in demaund. This alſo being obſerued, that if the Huſband abſenteth himſelfe, and will not defend his wiues right, or will yeeld vp the tenement againſt his wiues wil, if the wife doe come in before Iudgement, ready to anſwere to the demandant, and to defend her right, the wife ſhall be admitted thereunto. Likewiſe if Tenant in dower, Tenant by the law of the land, or otherwiſe for Terme life, or by gift, whereas the reuerſion is reſerued, doe make default, or will yeeld vp the tenement, the heires, or they to whom the reuerſion belongeth, ſhall be admitted to anſwere, if they come in before iudgement. And if vpon default or reddition, iudgement happen to bee giuen: then the heires, or they vnto whom the reuerſion belongeth, after the death of ſuch tenants, ſhall haue recouery by a writ of Entre, in which like proces ſhall be obſerued, as is aforeſaid, in caſe where the huſband leeſeth his wiues land by default. And ſo in ỹ caſes aforeſaid, two actiõs do cõcurre, one betweene the demandant and tenant, and the other betweene the tenant, ſhewing his right, and the demandant. Weſt. 2. cap. 3. An. 13. Ed. 1.

And be it further enacted by the authoritie aforesaid, that if anie person or persons accomptant, or indebted, as is aforesaid, shall at anie time after he or they shall become accomptant or chargeable, as is aforesaid, purchase and buy, or cause to be purchased and bought, any lands, tenements, or hereditaments, and cause the assurance thereof to be made in the name of any other person or persons, where the same is indéed meant or intended to the vse, profite, or behoofe of such person accomptant or indebted, or of any other person or persons, & that the same maner of purchasing, and secret vses, profites, or behoofes, shalbe found by office or inquisition: that then all and euery landes, tenements, and hereditaments, so to be bought or purchased, or caused to be purchased, as is before mentioned in this last Prouiso, shall by vertue of this Act, be taken, déemed, and vsed for the satisfaction of the arrerages & debt of euery such Accomptant or debtor, as is aboue mentioned, to al intents and purposes, as though the person or persons indebted, vpon his or their Accompt or Farme, were thereof actually seised of such estate as was conueied to any person or persons, by any such Accomptant or Debtor, or by his meanes, as is aforesaid. And that all Sales to be thereof made by the Quéenes Maiestie, her heires or successors, for satisfaction of such Debt or Arrerages, as shall bée found as is aforesaid, to be due and owing to our said Soueraigne Ladie the Quéene, her heires or successours, shall be of the like effect, and be vsed and done in such like manner and forme, as is before erpressed. And whereas heretofore some treasorers, tellers, receiuors, collectors, and others, hauing had charge of the Qu. maiesties mony and treasure, haue gotten into their hands great sums of the Q. maiesties mony and treasure, & thence the beginning of her M. reigne, and haue most fraudulently imployed her Maiesties mony and treasure which they had in their charge, in sundrie wise to their owne vses, partly in the purchasing her Maiesties owne lands, and partly in purchasing lands of other, and to the intent the same should not bée liable to satisfie and pay her Maiestie, her heires or successors, of that which to her or them should appertaine, haue purchased the same, sometimes in their owne names, and sometimes in the names of sundry their friends and kinsfolkes, wiues and children, and yet neuertheless haue taken and receiued the rents and reuenues therof, to their own vses: Be it therefore further enacted and ordained by the authoritie aforesaid, That all and singuler lands, tenements, and hereditaments which anie Treasorer, Receiuor, Teller, Customer, Collector, Officer, or Accomptant before named, hath heretofore since the beginning of the Quénes maiesties reigne, purchased, or caused to be purchased, to the intent the same should not be liable, as is aforesaid, (the fraude and couin aforesaid being firste found by office or inquisition) shall and may be seised and taken by her Maiestie, her heires and successors, and retained by her Maiesty, her heyres and successours in fée simple, to be sold, or otherwise vsed at her and their willes and pleasures, towards the payment and satisfaction of all and euery arrerages, already set or determined, and adiudged, or that hereafter shall be set, determined, or adiudged vpon his or their Accompt, (all reasonable and due Petitions being allowed) at such rate and value, as the same were purchased or bought or caused to be purchased or bought by any such Treasorer, Receiuor, Teller, Customer, or Collector before named, or by any other person to their vse. Prouided alwayes, and be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, that no Bishop, hauing the collection of any Subsidy or Tenths, or any his lands, tenements, or hereditaments, whereof he is seised in the right of his Bishopricke, shall be charged by vertue of this Act, for any arrerages of tenths or subsidie, otherwise, or in any other maner then he might lawfully haue been before the making of this Act: Any thing therein contained to the contrary thereof notwithstanding. Prouided also, that this Act as touching only the sale of any lands or tenements, shal not extend to any lands, tenements, or hereditaments, which any person or persons now haue or enioy, and haue purchased or obtained bona fide, and not being priuy or consenting vnto any such intent, to defraud the Quéens maiesty, as is aboueaid: and that it shal be lawfull to euery person and persons, whose lands, tenements, or hereditaments, shal by any office or inquisition be found to be fraudulently conueyed or assured, as is aboueaid, to haue his and their lawfull Trauerse to euery such office or inquisition: And if it be found with the party that tendereth the Trauerse: That then he shall haue the said lands out of the Princes hands, without any Petition, Liuery, or Ouster le maine, or anie other suite to be had, made, or vsed. And the same being found for such person or persons so trauersing, the same lands, tenements, & hereditaments shall be adiudged as not liable, chargeable, nor to be sold by force of this Statute. Prouided also, and be it enacted, That if the Qu. Prouided alwayes, and be it &c. That euerie such Scire facias, so to be awarded, and the returne thereof, shall be entred of record in the Court of Exchequer. And euerie such Proces of Summons and Garnishment, with Proclamation, and the returne thereof, so to bee awarded out of euerie the sayd seuerall Courts of Wards and Liueries, and Duchie of Lancaster, and the seuerall returnes thereof, ſhall be entred into the booke of Decrées of the ſaid Courts, out of which ſuch p̄oces ſhal be awarded. And that euery perſon and perſons to whom the Quéenes Maieſtie, her heires or ſucceſſors ſhall make ſale of any manno̅rs, lands, tenements or hereditaments of any ſuch officer, accountant or debtor, ſhall or may haue exemplified the ſeuerall p̄oces aforeſaid, & the returne or returnes thereupon vnder the great Seale of England, and that aſwell the ſaid inrolment and entries aforeſaid of the ſayd P̄oces, and the Returns therupon, as the ſaid exemplifications ſhalbe of as good force and validitie in the Law, to all intents and purpoſes, as if the ſayd P̄oces and Returnes therupon were extant, remaining and ſufficient. And to the intent ſuch manno̅rs, landes, tenements and hereditamēts as are liable to ſale by the Quéens Maieſtie her heirs and ſucceſſors by force of this Act, may be ſold according to the value therof, for the more ſpédie paiment of the debts, and dueties due to her Highnes, her heires and ſucceſſors, and for the benefit of the perſon or perſons whoſe lands ſhall be ſold, It is enacted &c. that if any perſon or perſons, other then the Officer, Debtor or Accomptant aforeſayd, whoſe landes, tenements or hereditaments are or ſhall be liable to be ſold by force of this Act, doe or ſhall at any time within the ſayd two yeares and tenne months after ſuch returne as aforeſaid, procure any other able & ſufficiēt perſon or perſons to purchaſe or buy ẏ ſame at ſuch p̄yce & value as the ſame lands, tenemēts or hereditamēts at that time ſhalbe reaſonably worth to be ſold, then vpon payment & ſatisfaction to be made to the Qu. Maieſtie her heires & ſucceſſors, of the value of ẏ ſaid lands, tenements or hereditaments ſo to be ſold, our ſaid Soueraigne Ladie her heirs and ſucceſſors by Letters Patents vnder the great Seale of England will be pleaſed to ſell ſuch landes, tenements and hereditaments to ſuch perſon or perſons before any other, as will purchaſe and buy the ſame by the meanes and procurement of him or them whoſe lands, tenements and hereditaments ſhall be ſold as aforeſaid. And be it &c. that all and euery perſon and perſons, whoſe manors, lands, tenements or hereditaments, ſhall be liable and ſubiect to be ſold by force of this Act vpon P̄oces to be awarded out of the Court of Exchequer and other the Courts aforeſaid, ſhall bring and ſhew into the ſayd Courts, all ſuch euidences, concerning the ſaid manors, lands, tenements and hereditaments liable and ſubiect to be ſold as aforeſayd, being in his or their cuſtody or poſſeſſion, or in the cuſtody or poſſeſſion of any other by his deliuery, conſent, or appointment, to the intent the ſtate or title of and in the ſaid manors, lands, tenements and hereditaments may be knowne, to the end the better and more auaileable ſale thereof may bee made, according to the true intent and meaning of this Act. And it is alſo the true intent of this Act, and of the ſayd Statute of the 13. yeare of the Quéenes reigne, That if any perſon or perſons, whoſe lands, tenements and hereditaments are, or ſhalbe liable, and ſubiect to be ſold by vertue of this Act, or the ſaid Act of the 13. haue ſufficient manors, lands, tenements or hereditaments, ouer and beſide his chiefe manſion houſe & demeſnes belonging thereunto, to ſatiſfie the debts and duties of her Maieſtie, her heires and ſucceſſors, and do procure the ſame to be bought or purchaſed for ſo much money, as will ſatiſfie the ſaid debts and duties, within the ſaid ſeuerall time and times, before limited & appointed for the ſaid lands, &c. to be ſold as aforeſaid, and doe ſatiſfie the ſaid debts and duties accordingly: That then his and their ſaid chiefe manſion houſe and demeſnes thereunto belonging, ſhal not be ſold by her Maieſtie, her heires & ſucceſſors, by force of this Act, or of the ſaid Statute of the 13. yeare of the Quéenes Maieſties raigne. Prouided alwayes, that this Act ſhall endure onely to the end of the next Seſſion of the next Parliament enſuing. And in Anno 43. Eliz. cap. 5. this Statute is continued vntill the end of the firſt Seſſion of the next Parliament.

10 Whereas it is conceiued, that ſome manner of Aſſignements of Debts, if they ſhould be made to his Maieſtie, his heires and ſucceſſors, the ſame would be inconuenient, his Maieſtie therefore is well pleaſed, that it be enacted, And be it &c. That no Debt ſhall at any time after the firſt day of July, which ſhall be in the yeare of our Lord God 1610, be aſſigned to the Kings Maieſtie, his heires or ſucceſſors, by or from any Debtor or Accomptant to his Maieſtie, his heires or ſucceſſors, other then ſuch Debts as did before grow due originally to the Kings Debtor or Accomptant bona fide. And that all Graunts and Aſſignements of Debts to the Kings Maieſtie, his heires or ſucceſſors, which from and after the ſaid firſt day of July ſhall be had or made contrarie to the true intent of this Act, ſhall be void and of no force: Any Law, Cuſtome, Priuiledge, or thing to the contrarie in anywiſe notwithſtanding. An. 7. Iac. cap. 15.

Demurrers.

FOraſmuch as exceſſiue charges and expences, and great delay and hinderance of Juſtice hath growne in actions and ſuits betweene the ſubiects of this Realme, by reaſon that vpon ſome ſmall miſtaking, or want of forme in pleading, iudgements are often reuerſed by Writs of Error, and oftentimes vpon demurrers in Law giuen otherwiſe then the matter in Law, and very right of the cauſe doth require, whereby the parties are conſtrained either vtterly to loſe their right, or elſe after long time and great trouble and expences to renue againe their ſuits: For remedie thereof, Be it &c. That from henceforth after demurrer ioyned and entred in any action or ſuit in any Court of Record within this Realme, the Iudges ſhall proceed & giue iudgement according as the very right of the cauſe and matter in Law ſhall appeare vnto them, without regarding any imperfection, defect, or want of forme in any Writ, Returne, Plaint, Declaration, or other Pleading, Proceſſe, or courſe of proceeding whatſoeuer. Except thoſe onely, which the partie demurring ſhall ſpecially and particularly ſet downe and expreſſe preſſe together with his demurrer. And that no iudgement to be giuen ſhalbe reuerſed by any writ of Error for any ſuch imperfection, defect, or want of forme, as is aforeſaid, except ſuch onely as is before excepted. And be it &c. That after demurrers ioyned and entred, the Court where the ſame ſhall be, ſhall and may by vertue of this Act, from time to time amend all and euerie ſuch imperfections, defects, and wants of forme, as is before mentioned, other then thoſe onely, which the partie demurring ſhall ſpecially and particularly expreſſe and ſet downe together with his demurrer, as is aforeſaid. Prouided alwayes and be it &c. That this Act or any thing therein contained, ſhall not extend to any Writ, Declaration, or ſuit of Appeale of Felonie or Murder, nor to any Indictment or Preſentment of Felonie or Murder, Treaſon, or other matter, nor to any proces vpon any of them, nor to any writ, bill, action, or information, vpon any popular or penall Statute: Any thing aforeſaid to the contrarie notwithſtanding. OVr Soueraigne Lord the King conſidering the great loſſes and damnages which oftentimes haue come and be likely to come hereafter, as well to himſelfe, as to many of his lieges, for that where as well diuers Indictments and ſuites for our Soueraigne Lord the King, as other ſuites betweene partie and partie, haue beene taken before diuers Iuſtices of the Peace, aſſigned by diuers Commiſſions of our Soueraigne Lord the King in diuers Counties of England, and diuers plees and proceſſes vpon thoſe Indictments haue often beene made, and hanging before the ſame Iuſtices not determined, the which plees and proceſſes been often diſcontinued by making of new Commiſſions of the Peace in thoſe Counties, to the great loſſe of our ſaid Soueraigne Lord the King, and his ſubiects, in delay of the ſame plees and ſuites, and of the deliuerance of his ſaid ſubiects: And vpon that, our Soueraigne Lord the King willing to prouide remedie, Of the aſſent and authoritie of this preſent Parliament, hath ordained and eſtabliſhed, That all ſuch plees, ſuites, and proceſſes, from henceforth to be taken and to be made before Iuſtices of the Peace in any Countie of England, the ſaid plees and proceſſes in ſuch ſuits to be made ſhall not bee diſcontinued by ſuch new Commiſſions of the Peace to be made, but that thoſe plees and proceſſes ſhall ſtand in their ſtrength. Commotion

WHereas at the time of the commotion late stirred vp within this Realme and also sithence, many great men and diuers other haue disdained to be iusticed by the King and his Court, as they ought and were wont in the time of the Kings noble progenitors, and also in his time, but haue taken great reuengements and distresses of their neighbors and of others by themselues, vntill they had amends and fines at their owne pleasure: And further some of them will not be iusticed by the Kings ministers, nor will suffer them to make deliuery of such distresses, as they had taken of their owne authoritie: It is prouided, agreed, and granted, That all persons as well of high as of low estate, shal receiue Iustice in the Kings Court. And none from thenceforth shall take any such distresse of his own authority, without award of our Court, though he haue damage or iniurie, wherefore hee ought to haue amends of his neighbor either great or lesse. And vpon the foresaid Article it is prouided and granted, That if any from henceforth take such distresses of his owne authoritie, without award of our Court (as before is said) and be conuict thereof, he shalbe punished by redemption, and that according to the trespasse. And likewise if one neighbor take a distresse of another, without award of our Court, whereby hee hath damage, hee shalbe punished in the same wise, and that after the quantitie of the trespasse. And neuertheless sufficient and full amends shall bee made to them that haue sustained losse by such distresses. Marl. cap. 1. An. 52. H. 3.

And he that offendeth against this Statute, shall be punished in like manner (as before 1.) and that according to the quantitie of the trespas. Marl. ca. 2. An 52. H. 3.

Officers

3 If any of what estate soeuer he be, will not suffer such distresses as he hath taken, to be deliuered by the Kings Officers, after the law & custome of the Realme, or will not suffer Summons, Attachments, or Executions of Iudgements giuen in the Kings Court to be done, he shalbe punished in manner aforesaid (before 1.) as one that wil not obey the law. And if any, of what estate soeuer he be, distraine his tenant for seruices and customes being due vnto him, or for any other thing, wherefore the Lord of the Fee hath cause to distraine, and after it is found, that the same seruices are not due the Lord shal not therefore be punished by redemption, as in the cases aforesaid, if he doe suffer the distresses to be deliuered, according to the law and custome of the Realme, but shall be amerced, as hitherto hath beene vsed, and the tenant shall recouer his dammages against him. 4 None from henceforth shall cause any distresse that he hath taken, to be driuen out of the Countie where it was taken, and if any neighbour doe so to his neighbour of his owne authoritie, and without iudgement, he shalbe punished by redemption (as aboue is said before 1.) as for a thing done against the peace. Neuertheless, if the Lord presume so to do against his tenant, he shalbe but grieuously punished by amerciament. Moreouer, the distresses shal be reasonable, and not too great. And he that taketh great and vnreasonable distresses, shall be grieuously amerced for the excesse of such distresses. Marl. cap. 4. An. 52. H. 3.

6 In right of that that diuers persons take, and cause to be taken the beasts of other, chasing them out of the Shire where the beasts were taken, It is prouided also, That if any from henceforth doe so, he shall make a grieuous fine, as is contained in the Statute of Marlbridge, made in the time of K. Henrie, father to the King that now is, (before 4.) And likewise it shall bee done to them which take beasts wrongfully, & distraine out of their fee, they shall be more grieuously punished if the manner of the trespas do so require. W. 1. ca. 16. Out of the Shire

7 It is prouided, That if any from henceforth take the beasts of other, and cause them to be driuen into a Castle or Fortresse, & there within the close of such Castle or Fortresse doe withhold them against gage and pledges, whereupon the beasts bee solemnely demanded by the Sherife, or by some other Bailife of the kings, at the suit of the plaintife, and the same Sherife or Bailife taking with him the power of the Shire or Bailiwicke, doe assay to make pleuin of the beasts from him that tok them, or from his Lord, or from other being seruants of the Lord (whatsoeuer they be) that are found in the place whereunto the beasts were inchased: if any before him of the deliuerance of the beasts, or that no man be found for the Lord, or for him that toke them, for to answer and make the deliuerance after such time as the Lord or the taker shall be admonished to make deliuerance by the Sherife or Bailife, if he be in the countrey, or nere, or there where as he may be conueniently warned by the taker, or by any other of his to make deliuerance, if he were out of the countrey, when the taking was, and doe not then cause the beasts to be deliuered incontinent: then the king for the trespasse and despight, shall cause the sayd Castle or Fortresse to be beaten downe without recouerie. And all the dammages that the plaintife hath sustained in his beasts, or in his gainure, or any otherwise (after the first demaund made by the Sherife or Bailife for the beasts) shall bee restored to him double by the Lord, or by him that toke the beasts, if hee haue whereof, and if hee haue not whereof, hee shall haue it of the Lord, at what time, or in what manner the deliuerance bee made, after that the Sherife

10 Foraſmuch as the Comminaltie of the Realme hath ſuſtained great loſſe and dammage by wrongfull taking of diſtreſſes, which haue been made by Sherifes, and by other the Kings Baylifes, for the Kings debt, or for any other cauſe: It is therefore prouided and ordained, That when a Sherife, or any other man doth take the beaſts of other, they to whom the beaſts doe belong, may giue them their feeding without diſturbance (ſo long as they be impounded) without giuing any thing for their keeping. And that the beaſts nor no other diſtreſſe taken for the Kings debt, nor for any other cauſe, be giuen ne ſold within fifténe dayes after the taking. And if any bring a tayle of a paiment made in the Exchequer, the diſtreſſes ſhall ceaſe. And the Sherife or Baylife ſhall cauſe him to bee attached that ought to haue acquited him, that hee appeare vpon the ſame accompt to doe as right ſhall require, and there ſhall haue the names of the pledges. Yet it is prouided, That no man of Religion, nor other, ſhall be diſtrained by his beaſts that gaine his land, nor by his ſheepe for the Kings debt, nor of any other man, except they can find no other diſtreſſe, or cattels ſufficient, whereof they may leuie the debt, or that is ſufficient for the demaund: except impounding of beaſts, that a man findeth in his ground damunage feſant, after the vſe and cuſtome of the Realme: And that ſuch diſtreſſes be reaſonable, after the value of the debt or demaund, and after conuenient eſtimation, and not outragious. Howbeit the King willeth and commaundeth, That Sherifes, or their Baylifes, that haue receiued the Kings debt of the ſummons of the Exchequer, and haue not acquited the debtors thereof, at the next accompt ſhall be puniſhed after the Statutes made thereupon, (which ſee in Debt to the King 3.) And the King willeth, That all debts of ſummons of the Exchequer, that the Sherife or Baylife confeſſeth receit of, ſhall bee allowed forthwith, ſo that whether hee receiued all the debt or part, it ſhall neuer come more in demaund nor ſummons, after the Sherife hath confeſſed the receipt. Iuſtices Writ

3 In caſe where the huſband being impleaded for land, giueth plainely vp the land demanded vnto his aduerſarie, after the death of the huſband, the Iuſtices haue awarded to the wife her Dower, if ſhee demaund it by Writ. But in caſe where the huſband leeſeth by default the land in demand, and the wife after the death of her huſband demaundeth her Dower, it hath beene ſeene that ſome Iuſtices haue awarded vnto the woman her Dower, notwithſtanding the default which her huſband made, other Iuſticers being of the contrarie opinion, and iudging otherwiſe. To the intent that from henceforth ſuch ambiguitie ſhall be taken away and put in certaine: It is prouided, That in both caſes the woman demaunding her Dower, ſhall be heard. And if it be alledged againſt her, That her huſband loſt the land, whereof the Dower is demaunded, by iudgement, whereby ſhe ought not to haue Dower, and then it be demaunded by what iudgement, and it be found that it was by default, (whereunto the tenant muſt anſwer) then it behoueth him to anſwer further, and to ſhew that he had, and hath right in the foreſaid land, according to the forme of the Writ, that the tenant before purchaſed againſt the huſband. And if he can ſhew, that the huſband of ſuch wife had no right in the lands, nor none other but onely he, then hee ſhall goe quit, and the wife ſhall recouer no Dower: But if he cannot ſhew ſo much, the wife ſhall recouer her Dower. And ſo in theſe caſes, and in certaine other following: That is to ſay, when the wife being endowed leeſeth her Dower by default, and tenants in free mariage, by the Law of England, or for terme of life, or in fee tayle, diuers actions doe concurre: For when ſuch tenants are to demaund the land loſt by default, and it is come to that point, that they muſt be compelled to ſhew their right, foraſmuch as they cannot of right make anſwer without them, to whom the reuerſion belongeth: Therefore be it granted vnto them, that they may vouch to warrantie, according to the tenor of the Writ, as if they were tenants, if they haue any warrantie. And when the warranto' hath warranted, the plea ſhall proceed betweene him that is ſeiſed and the warranto', according to the tenor of the Writ that the tenant purchaſed before, and by which he recouered by default: And ſo from many actions at length they ſhall deſcend to one Iudgement, which is to this, That either the demandants ſhall recouer their demaund, or that the tenants ſhall goe quit. And if the Action of ſuch tenant, which is compelled to ſhew his right, was moued by a Writ of Right, though that the great Aſſiſe or battell cannot bee ioyned by words accuſtomed, yet it may be ioyned by words conuenient ynough: for whereas the tenant in that that he ſheweth his right which belongeth to him, by the Writ that he before purchaſed is in ſtead of a demaundant, the warranto' may well defend the right of the tenant, which is come in place of a demaundant, as before is ſayd, and may offer the ſeiſin of his anceſtor, and to defend it by the bodie of a freeman, or may put himſelfe vpon the great Aſſiſe, and pray that the inquirie may be made thereof, whether hee hath more right to the land being in demaund, or elſe the foreſayd ſuch a one: or the great Aſſiſe may bee ioyned otherwiſe, and ſo the warranto' may defend the right, and knowledge the ſeiſin of his auncеſtor, and put himſelfe vpon the great Aſſiſe &c. and pray inquirie to be made, whether hee hath more right in the foreſaid land, as in that whereof hee infeoffed ſuch a man, or that ſuch a one releaſed and quite claimed &c. or elſe the aforeſayd partie &c. And where ſometime it chaunceth that a woman which hath no right to demaund Dower of the land of an heire being within age, doth purchaſe a Writ of Dower againſt the Gardein, and the Gardein yeeldeth Dower to the woman by fauour, or maketh default, or by colluſion defendeth the plea ſo faintly, wherby the wife is awarded her Dower in preiudice of the heire: It is prouided, That the heire, when hee commeth to full age, ſhall haue ſuch action to demaund the ſeiſin of his auncеſtor againſt his wife, as hee ſhould haue againſt any other foreigner. Prouided alwayes, That the wife ſhall haue her exception ſaued againſt the demaundant, to ſhew that ſhee had right to her Dower, which if ſhee can ſhew, ſhee ſhall goe quit, and retaine her Dower, and the heire ſhall bee grieuouſly amerced, according to the diſcretion of the Iuſticers: And if not, the heire ſhall recouer his demaund. In like manner the wife ſhall bee aided, if the heire, or any other doe implead her for her Dower, if ſhee loſe her Dower by default: In which caſe the default ſhall not bee ſo preiudiciall to her, but that ſhee ſhall recouer her Dower, if ſhee haue right thereto, and ſhe ſhall haue this Writ. Præcipe A. quod iuſtè &c. reddat B. quæ fuit vxor F. tantam terram cum pertinentijs in C. quam clamat eſſe rationabilem dotem ſuam, vel de rationabili dote ſua, & quod prædictus A. ei deforceat &c. And to this Writ the tenant ſhall haue his exception, for to ſhew that ſhee had no right to bee endowed, which if hee can preſſe, hee ſhall goe quit, and if not, the wife ſhall recouer the land whereof ſhee was endowed before. And whereas before time, if a man had loſt his land by default, hee had none other recoueries then by a Writ of Right, which was not maintainable by any that could not ſpeake of meere right, as be tenants for terme of life, in free mariage, or in tayle, in which caſes a reuerſion is reſerued: It is prouided, That from henceforth their default ſhall ſhall not bee ſo preiudiciall, but that they may recouer their eſtate, if they haue right, by another Writ then by a Writ of Right. For land in free mariage loſt by default, ſuch a Writ ſhall be made.
